

following paragraph shall be substituted therefor:—

“(1) The Governor may, by proclamation:—

(a) with the approval of the Secretary of State, define any boundaries of the territories for the time being within the limits of this Order, and

(b) divide those territories into provinces or districts in such manner and with such sub-divisions as may be convenient for the purposes of administration, describing the boundaries thereof and assigning names thereto.”

Amendment of Article 15 of Order of 1902.

4. Article 15 of the Order of 1902 is hereby amended as follows:—

(a) by the insertion of the two following paragraphs immediately after paragraph (2) thereof.

“(2A) There shall be as many judges of the High Court as may from time to time be required and the principal judge shall be designated the Chief Justice. The High Court shall be fully constituted by any one of the judges thereof, but in any particular case or matter the Chief Justice or, in his absence, the next senior judge may direct that the Court shall be constituted by two or more judges.

(2B) No person shall be appointed to be a judge of the High Court unless:—

(i) He is qualified to practise as an advocate in a Court in England, Scotland, Northern Ireland or some other part of His Majesty's dominions having unlimited jurisdiction either in civil or criminal matters, and

(ii) he has been qualified for not less than five years to practise as an advocate or solicitor in such a court.

(2C) In any case of death, illness, absence, pressure of business, or in any other emergency, one or more acting judges of the High Court may be appointed.”

(b) by the revocation of paragraph (3) thereof and the substitution thereof of the following paragraph:—

“(3) Subject to the provisions of any Ordinance or rules, the Chief Justice shall make such arrangements as he thinks fit for the distribution of the business of the High Court, and the Court may sit at any place in the Protectorate that may be convenient.”

(c) by the addition at the end thereof of the following paragraph:—

“(5) There shall be such Registrars, taxing masters, bailiffs and other officials of the High Court as may be necessary, who shall have such powers and duties as may be vested in them by any Ordinance or rules of court or as may be assigned to them by any directions issued by the Chief Justice.”

Insertion of Article 23A in Order of 1902.

5. The following Article shall be inserted in the Order of 1902 immediately after Article 23 thereof:—

“23A. No judge, magistrate or other person acting judicially shall be liable to be sued in any civil court for any act done or ordered to be done by him in the discharge of his judicial duty whether or not within the limits of his jurisdiction, if he, at the time, in good faith believed himself to have jurisdiction to do or order the act complained of; and no officer of any court or other person bound to execute the lawful orders or warrants of any such judge, magistrate or other person acting judicially shall be liable to be sued in any civil court in respect of any act done in execution of any order or warrant which he would be bound to execute if within the jurisdiction of the person issuing the same.”

Amendment of Article XVI of Order of 1920.

6. Article XVI of the Order of 1920 is hereby revoked, without prejudice to anything lawfully done thereunder, and the following Article is substituted therefor:—

“Dismissal and suspension of officers.”

“XVI. The Governor may, subject to such instructions as may from time to time be given to him by His Majesty through one of His Majesty's Principal Secretaries of State, upon sufficient cause to him appearing, dismiss or suspend from the exercise of his office any person holding any public office within the Protectorate, or subject as aforesaid, may take such other disciplinary action as may seem to him desirable.”

Saving for existing boundaries etc.

7. Until other provision is made by Proclamation under Article 6 of the Uganda Order in Council, 1902, as amended by this Order, the boundaries, divisions, sub-divisions and names as defined, described and assigned under the said Article prior to the date upon which this Order comes into operation shall continue to have effect.

Power to revoke, etc.

8. His Majesty, His Heirs and Successors, in Council may at any time revoke, alter, add to, or amend this Order.

Commencement.

9. This Order shall come into operation on a date to be fixed by the Governor by proclamation in the Official Gazette of the Protectorate and shall be published in the said Gazette, and the Governor shall give directions for the publication of this Order at such places and in such manner and for such time or times as he thinks proper for giving due publicity thereto within the Protectorate.

Rupert B. Howorth.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of March, 1939.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 7th and 8th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 94; of the Act of the 13th and 14th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94; and of the Act of the 32nd and 33rd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 94, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty
