

William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 26, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 27th day of April, 1939, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 26, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for providing the Bishop of Wakefield with a more convenient house of residence:

“ Whereas the house and premises known as Bishopgarth, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in the City of Wakefield, form part of the endowment fund of the Bishopric of Wakefield, and are held as and for an episcopal residence for the Bishop of such Bishopric:

“ And whereas the Right Reverend Campbell Richard, now Bishop of Wakefield, by and with the advice of a commission of inquiry appointed by him and comprising persons of knowledge and eminence in the Diocese, has represented to us that the said house is uneconomically planned and unnecessarily large and that the premises are expensive to maintain:

“ And whereas we have caused an inspection and survey to be made of the said house and premises and are satisfied that the same are no longer suitable for use as an episcopal residence and that another and suitable house can be acquired for that purpose:

“ And whereas, in the circumstances hereinbefore set forth, it appears to us to be expedient and likely to conduce to the permanent benefit of the See of Wakefield that a sale of the said house and premises should be effected in the manner hereinafter recommended and proposed:

“ Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Campbell Richard, Bishop of Wakefield (in testimony of which consent he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said house and premises known as Bishopgarth with its appurtenances may be sold for such price or prices and at such time or times and in such manner as shall be approved by us and may be transferred and conveyed to any purchaser or purchasers by an assurance or assurances to be made in manner and form approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal, and that all moneys received by or on account of the sale of the said house and appurtenances or of any part thereof shall be paid over to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall be applied by us (first) in defraying any costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the sale of the said house and appurtenances known as Bishopgarth, and (secondly) in payment to the Wakefield Bishopric Endowment Fund held by us under the Bishoprics Act, 1878, for the purpose of defraying the cost of providing in such manner and at such times as shall be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, another episcopal residence, with the appurtenances thereto, for the Bishop of Wakefield.

“ And we further recommend and propose that as soon as the above mentioned new episcopal residence shall have been provided the said Campbell Richard, Bishop of Wakefield, or his successors shall, at his or their personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured from loss or damage by fire such residence, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, such insurance being effected in such one of the public offices of Assurance in London or Westminster as we may approve for such a sum as may be determined by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said residence any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied (and we recommend and propose that the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied) by us towards the rebuilding or repairing and reinstating of the said residence or any part thereof which may have so suffered loss and damage in such manner as shall be determined by us, with the concurrence of the said Bishop of Wakefield for the time being.

“ And we further recommend and propose that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from recommending and proposing any other Measures relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in conformity with the provisions of the said Acts, or of either of them or of any other Act of Parliament.”

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the time when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Wakefield.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 5th day of May, 1939.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared, and laid before His Majesty in Council, a Scheme bearing date the 16th day of February, 1939, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“ We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for the taking down and the sale of the site and materials of Redruth Chapel situate in the Parish of Redruth, in the County of Cornwall and in the Diocese of Truro:
