"2. That the net proceeds arising from the sale to be made by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as aforesaid, after the payment of all costs and expenses of and in relation to such sale or to the carrying into effect of this Scheme shall be held and invested by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, as a Curate Fund for the Benefit of the said Benefice of Redruth.

"Provided always that the provision herein contained relating to the sale and disposal of the said Redruth Chapel shall not take effect until the consents and approval which by the said Measures are made requisite to the sale under the powers conferred by those Measures of the site of any Church shall be obtained to the sale and disposal hereby proposed of the said Redruth Chapel and of the site thereof.

"And provided further that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from making any other recommendations and proposals relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the said Measures to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Measures:
