

of the said Benefice of Great Haseley, and the Reverend Albert Ernest Snow, now Incumbent of the said Benefice of Watlington (testified by their respectively signing this Scheme) upon the union taking effect (a) there shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of the said Benefice of Great Haseley all that part of the Parish of the said Benefice of Pyrton containing Upper Standhill and Lower Standhill, and lying to the west of an imaginary line commencing upon the boundary which divides the Parish of the said Benefice of Great Haseley from the Parish of the said Benefice of Pyrton at the northern end of the wall or fence which divides the close numbered 307 from the close numbered 308 upon the Ordnance Map (1921 Edition) of the Parish of Pyrton upon the scale of twenty-five inches to a mile and extending thence first southward, then south-westward, then south-eastward and then again south-westward along the said wall or fence and along the walls or fences which divide the closes numbered 305, 297, 270B, 269, 251, 249, 248, 246, and 274, from the said close numbered 308 and the closes numbered 304, 300, 265, 268, 254, 253, 252, 245, 229 and 228, all upon the same Ordnance Map to a point upon the western boundary of the Parish of the said Benefice of Pyrton at the south-western end of the wall or fence which divides the said close numbered 274 from the said close numbered 228, which said imaginary line is set forth upon the Map or Plan hereto annexed and is thereon coloured red; and (b) there shall be transferred and annexed for all ecclesiastical purposes to the Parish of the said Benefice of Watlington all that further part of the Parish of the said Benefice of Pyrton including the northern side of Love Lane, and being the close numbered 41 upon the said Ordnance Map.

“ Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from making any other recommendations and proposals relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament.”

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the said Measures to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Measures:

And whereas the prescribed time has elapsed and no such objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Oxford has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measures.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Oxford.

Rupert B. Howorth.
