Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measures.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Hereford.

Rupert B. Howorth.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 25th day of July, 1939.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 20th day of July, 1939, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Haselbury Plucknett and the Benefice (being a Rectory) of North Perrott, both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Somerset and in the Diocese of Bath and Wells:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Francis, Bishop of Bath and Wells, pursuant to the provisions of the said Measures to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Haselbury Plucknett and North Perrott duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Bath and Wells and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Bath and Wells signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:

"And whereas both of the said Benefices are now full, the Reverend Ernest George Haskins being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett and the Reverend Philip Audley Brown being the present Incumbent of the said Benefice of North Perrott:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, with the consent of the said Francis, Bishop of Bath and Wells (testified by his signing this Scheme), do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty as follows, that is to say:—

"1. That the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett and the said Benefice of North Perrott shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with Cure of Souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett with North Perrott,' but the Parishes of the said Benefices shall continue in all respects distinct.

"2. That if upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette both of the said two Benefices shall be vacant, the union of the same two Benefices shall take effect forthwith; and if the said Benefice of North Perrott only shall be then vacant the said union shall also take effect forthwith if the Incumbent of the other of the said two Benefices shall with the approval of the Bishop consent to become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall not so consent or if the Bishop shall not approve, then the said union shall take effect upon the then next avoidance of the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett and the then Incumbent of North Perrott shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice, and if the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett only shall be then vacant the said union shall take effect upon the next avoidance of the said Benefice of North Perrott and if neither of the said two Benefices be then vacant, then the said union shall take effect on the next avoidance of the said Benefice of North Perrott if the Incumbent at that time of the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett shall have been instituted to Haselbury Plucknett subsequently to the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme or if instituted before that date shall with the approval of the Bishop consent to become the Incumbent of the United Benefice, but if he shall have been instituted to the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett before that date and shall not so consent or if the Bishop shall not approve, then the said union shall take effect immediately upon the next vacancy of the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett following such avoidance of the said Benefice of North Perrott and the then Incumbent of the said Benefice of North Perrott shall become the first Incumbent of the United Benefice.

"3. That upon the said union taking effect the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Haselbury Plucknett shall become and be the house of residence for the
