PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 26th day of April, 1940 (C.W. 14403/39), in the words following, viz.:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions or other allowances in the nature thereof payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas owing to the high importance of the appointments of Commodores of Royal Naval Barracks, only senior Captains are appointed as such, and it is therefore always likely that such Officers may reach Flag rank before the completion of the term of their appointments:

"And whereas it is of great advantage to maintain continuity by retaining such Officers in their posts until they are actually required for appointment as Flag Officers:

"And whereas owing to the requirements of the naval disciplinary system it is not possible to re-appoint such Commodores as Rear-Admirals on promotion:

"And whereas we consider that Commodores of Royal Naval Barracks promoted to Rear Admiral should continue to serve as Commodores but receive pay as Rear Admirals together with Table Money of 15s. a day:

"And whereas we also consider that in the event of a Commodore of Royal Naval Barracks promoted to the rank of Captain before the 7th October, 1931, being placed on the retired list on promotion to Rear Admiral during the next few years, he should similarly receive pay as a Rear Admiral and Table Money as proposed for an Officer remaining on the active list:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction such revised emoluments with effect from the 1st August, 1938.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in these proposals."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with
