At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 26th day of June, 1940.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 26, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 6th day of June, 1940, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

“We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, and of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen

Victoria, Chapter 26, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for providing the Bishop of Sheffield with a more convenient house of residence:

“Whereas the house and premises known as Bishopsholme, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, situate in the City of Sheffield, form part of the endowment fund of the Bishopric of Sheffield, and are held as and for an episcopal residence for the Bishop of such Bishopric:

“And whereas it has been represented to us by the Right Reverend Leslie, now Bishop of Sheffield, and it has been made to appear to us that the said house and appurtenances are no longer desirable for use as such episcopal residence and should be sold:

“And whereas in the circumstances hereinbefore set forth it appears to us to be expedient and likely to conduce to the permanent benefit of the See of Sheffield that a sale of the said house and premises should be effected in manner hereinafter recommended and proposed:

“Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Leslie, Bishop of Sheffield (in testimony of which consent he has signed this Scheme and sealed the same with his Episcopal Seal) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that the said house and premises known as Bishopsholme with its appurtenances may be sold for such price or prices and at such time or times and in such manner as shall be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, under our Common Seal, and that all moneys received by or on account of the sale of the said house and appurtenances or of any part thereof shall be paid over to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and shall be applied by us (first) in defraying any costs, charges and expenses of and incidental to the sale of the said house and appurtenances known as Bishopsholme and (secondly) in payment to the Sheffield Bishopric Endowment Fund held by us under the Bishoprics Act, 1878, and the Bishoprics of Sheffield, Chelmsford and for the County of Suffolk Act, 1913, for the purpose of defraying the cost of providing in such manner and at such times as shall be approved by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, another episcopal residence, with the appurtenances thereto, for the Bishop of Sheffield:

“And we further recommend and propose that as soon as the above mentioned new episcopal residence shall have been provided the said Leslie, Bishop of Sheffield, or his successors, shall, at his or their personal charge and expense, insure and keep insured from loss or damage by fire such residence, with the appurtenances thereto belonging, such insurance being effected in such one of the public offices of Assurance in London or Westminster as we may approve for such a sum as may be determined by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, and that in case of any loss or damage by fire to the said residence any and every sum of money receivable under such insurance shall become and be payable and be paid to and deposited with us in trust to be applied (and we recommend and propose that the same, together with any interest and accumulations thereof, shall be applied) by us
