Genova, June 16. N. S.

Signior Giralamo Mari, whom our Senate lately made Choice of to be their Doge, has taken Possession of that Dignity, and thereupon received the usual Compliments. On the 10th Instant, the Prince of Monaco, who is going with the Character of Ambassador from the Most Christian King to the Pope, arrived in this Port with 4 French Gallies; He was saluted by the Cannon of this Place, and the Master of the Ceremonies, with several Deputies from the Senate, were sent to Compliment him; The Duke of Torfa also sent him a Compliment by one of his Gentlemen; He stayed here till the 13th, and then continued his Voyage to Civita-Vecchia. A Squadron of fifteen French Gallies are shortly expected here from Marseilles, designing to pass along this Coast as far as Messina; and we hear, another Squadron of 8 French Gallies are ordered to sail towards the Coast of Spain. One of the Gallies belonging to this Republick is sent to Thoulon, to wait for the Arrival of Signior Justiniani, who is returning from England, where he resided with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from this Republick.

Turin, June 14. The Marquis d'Urse, Envoy Extraordinary from the Most Christian King to Congratulate the Duke and Dutchess of Savoy on the Birth of the Prince of Piedmont, had Audience of their Royal Highnesses yesterday; The Marquis de Pluvault, who is come hither with the like Commission from the Duke of Orleans, has also had Audience of the Duke and Dutchess. Their Royal Highnesses have likewise received the Compliment of the Prince of Vaudemont by the Count de Porro, who is since returned to Milan. The Magistrates of this Place, and the Deputies from the Magistrates of Chambery, Nice, and Pignerol, have also paid their Compliments to the Dutchess of Savoy, and made her the usual Presents on this occasion.

Milan, June 17. The Senate here have made Applications to the Prince of Vaudemont our Governor, that the Swiss Troops now in the King of Spain's Service in this Duchy may be sent home, and offer to pay the Arrears that are due to them, amounting to above 200000 Crowns; part whereof they will pay as soon as they shall have begun their March, and the rest afterwards by Monthly Payments; This Proposal was well received by his Highness, who has writ about it to the Court of Spain. Baron Roost, Envoy from the Emperor to the Swiss Cantons, is come hither from Suifferland to confer with our Governor. The Abbot of Darmstadt is arrived here from Spain in his return to Rome. The Count of Berlips is likewise come hither from Madrid, and will be going in few days towards Vienna, where he is to make the King of Spain's Compliment of Congratulation to the King and Queen of the Romans on their Marriage. The Marquis de Parvella arrived here last Saturday from Turin, and having paid his Respects to the Prince of Vaudemont, he continued his Journey the next day to Mantua.

Venice, June 20. The Senate having resolved to exclude from their Assembly all the Noblemen, whose Relations enjoy any Offices or Benefices depending on the Pope, or who receive any Pensions, or other Gratifications from the Court of Rome; This Matter was brought before the Great Council at their last Meeting for their Approbation, but after a long Debate, it was rejected by a Majority of Votes. A Merchant Ship is lately come in here, which met off Ragusa the last Convoy that failed from hence for the Levants. Our Advices from Dalmatia say, the Commissioners who are met at Sternizza, on the Borders of that Province, to settle the Limits between the Venetian and Turkish Dominions, continue their Conferences with good Success; The Venetian Commissioner, Signior Grimani, has writ a Letter to the Senate, to inform them that he had received one from Count Marsigli, the Emperor's Commissioner for settling the Limits in Hungary, signifying that the Emperor his Master expects the Republick of Venice should yield to him the Town of Obroazzo, situate on the Frontiers of Dalmatia bordering on Croatia, as was stipulated by the Treaty of Alliance between the Emperor and this Republick; upon which the Senate has been extraordinarily assembled, and an Exprese is sent to Vienna with Instructions to the Venetian Ambassador at that Court touching this Matter.

Warsaw, June 22. The Diet have not yet chosen a new Marshal or Speaker; And in the mean time the Starost of Minsky (who was Marshal of the former Diet) discharges this Office according to Custom. The King has let them know, that the greatest part of the German Forces are already on their March home, and that he has sent Orders to hasten them; But the Deputies desire that the Regiments, which are now quartered in and near this City, may likewise be sent away, before they proceed to the Choice of a new Marshal; And that the Pasha Convinta may be laid before the Diet. The Cardinal Primate is returned from Silesia to Lowitz, the Place of his usual Residence, and is expected here in few days.

Vienna, June 24. The Imperial Court is returned hither from Luxemburg. Cardinal Colonitz is come to this Place from Presburgh, and has waited upon the Emperor, to give him an Account of the State of Affairs in Hungary. The Baron of Woltrup, of one of the ancientest Families in Silesia, is made a Count of the Empire. The Baron of Kesslstadt is arrived here with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Triers. Our Advices from Hungary say, several Regiments of the Imperial Troops are marching towards the Frontiers, to be employed in dismantling the Places which are to be restored to the Turks.

Brussels, July 7. The Count de Guiscard, Ambassador from the Most Christian King to the Court of Sweden, who lately arrived here from Paris, waited upon the Elector of Bavaria on Monday last, and the next day proceeded on his Journey. The Baron de Palavicini, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, had his Audience of Leave of his Electoral Highness on Monday, and set
