IMPERIAL SERVICE MEDAL.

The notice regarding Harold Richmond Portbury in Gazette No. 35110 of the 18th March, 1941, is hereby cancelled, it having been subsequently ascertained that he died before the date of the award therein mentioned.

Whitehall, March 14, 1941.

His Majesty The KING has been graciously pleased to award the Edward Medal to Mubengwa Musonda in recognition of his gallantry in the following circumstances:—

Mubengwa Musonda is an African employed by the Rhokana Corporation at their mine at Nkana, Northern Rhodesia. On the 1st March, 1940, a European was putting a charge of dynamite into a mass of rock jammed at the top end of a main chute. As he finished lighting the charge the rock under his feet gave way and he fell about eight feet and was pinned by his legs which were buried under the rock. He was in great danger, not only from the charge which he had already lit, but also from further supplies of rock which were still entering the main chute from the feeder chutes; further, the rock in which he was partly buried might have slipped further down the chute at any moment. Mubengwa Musonda lowered himself into the chute, wedging himself into the side without standing on the rock, and gripped the European under the arms. He managed to release one of the trapped man's legs, but immediately afterwards it was again buried when more rock fell into the main chute. Mubengwa Musonda maintained his hold and kept the European upright until help arrived and they were both brought to safety. In the meantime the charge overhead had fortunately not exploded.

Mubengwa Musonda's action showed very considerable courage and a disregard for his own personal safety.

In pursuance of Section 122 of the Factories Act, 1937, and of all other powers enabling him in that behalf, the Right Honourable Ernest Bevin, Minister of Labour and National Service, has been pleased to appoint Winifred Eva Ione Robinson to be His Majesty's Inspector of Factories.
