ADMIRALTY.

*Whitehall, S.W.1.
16th May, 1941.*

The KING has been graciously pleased to approve the posthumous Award of the Albert Medal, for gallantry in trying to save life at sea, to:

Lieutenant-Commander Walter Edmund Fletcher, Royal Navy, H.M.S. Haslemere.

On 5th January, 1941, Lieutenant-Commander Fletcher took his ship to the rescue of Miss Amy Johnson, who was piloting an aircraft which had fallen into the sea. Snow was falling and it was bitterly cold. The seas were heavy and a strong tide was running, but he dived in fully clothed. This brave and selfless action, which cost him his life, was typical of the fine spirit which Lieutenant-Commander Fletcher showed at sea and under fire while serving with the Channel Mobile Balloon Barrage.

His Majesty has also been graciously pleased to give orders for the following Appointment to the Distinguished Service Order, and to approve the following Awards:—

For enterprise and skill in a successful action against an enemy submarine:

To be a Companion of the Distinguished Service Order:

Lieutenant-Commander James Marjoribanks Rowland, Royal Navy, H.M.S. Wolverine.

The Distinguished Service Cross.

Lieutenant Reginald William Beecroft Lacon, Royal Navy, H.M.S. Wolverine.
