

Bridge southward through Five Lane Ends (which said northern and eastern parts are delineated and set forth upon the said Map or Plan and are thereon coloured green) shall be permanently united together and form one Benefice with cure of souls under the style of 'The United Benefice of Croglin with Renwick' and the said northern part of the said Benefice of Kirkoswald shall also form part of the Parish of Croglin for all ecclesiastical purposes and the said eastern part of the said Benefice of Kirkoswald shall also form part of the Parish of Renwick for all ecclesiastical purposes but the Parishes of the said Benefices of Renwick and Croglin shall continue distinct in all respects.

"3. That upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the unions referred to in Clauses 1 and 2 of this Scheme shall forthwith take effect and (a) the said Ernest Russell if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Castle Carrock shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew, and (b) the said William Foster Jones if he is then Incumbent of the said Benefice of Croglin shall be the first Incumbent of the United Benefice of Croglin with Renwick.

"4. That upon the said unions taking effect (a) the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Castle Carrock shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew and (b) the Parsonage House at present belonging to the said Benefice of Croglin shall become and be the house of residence for the Incumbent of the United Benefice of Croglin with Renwick

"5. That upon the said unions taking effect a part of the endowments of the United Benefice of Croglin with Renwick, namely, a sum of £2,000 Local Loans £3 per cent. per annum Stock now held by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the benefit of the said Benefice of Renwick and a sum of £500 £3 per cent. per annum Redemption Stock (1986-1996) being part of a larger sum of the said Stock now held by us for the benefit of the said Benefice of Renwick shall be severed from the United Benefice of Croglin with Renwick and shall be transferred and annexed to the United Benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew.

"6. That after the said unions have taken effect (a) the patronage of the United Benefice of Castle Carrock with Cumrew shall belong wholly to the Patrons of the said Benefices of Castle Carrock and Cumrew, and (b) the patronage of the United Benefice of Croglin with Renwick shall belong to the respective Patrons of the said Benefices of Croglin and Renwick in alternate turns, and the Patron of the said Benefice of Renwick shall have the right upon the first presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate right of presentation and the Patron of the said Benefice of Croglin shall have the right of presentation upon the second presentation to the United Benefice to be made after the union and every alternate turn thereafter.

"Provided always that nothing herein contained shall prevent us from making any other recommendations and proposals relating to the matters aforesaid, or any of them, in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures, or of any other Measure of the National Assembly of the Church of England, or of any Act of Parliament."

And whereas drafts of the said Scheme have been duly published in accordance with the provisions of the said Measures and Notices have been transmitted to the persons or bodies entitled under the said Measures to receive Notice requiring any objections to such draft Scheme to be stated or transmitted in writing to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules applicable to proceedings under the said Measures:

And whereas certain objections have been so stated or transmitted to the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners within the time prescribed in the same Rules:

And whereas the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners after giving full consideration to such objections have deemed right to make no alterations in such draft Scheme:

And whereas public notice of the certification to His Majesty in Council of the said Scheme and the consent thereto in writing of the Bishop of Carlisle has been duly given in the manner and within the time prescribed in the Statutory Rules aforesaid:

And whereas an appeal against the said Scheme has been made to His Majesty in Council by Mr. George Harrison, and such appeal was referred to the Judicial Committee of the Privy Council on the 5th day of September 1939:

And whereas the Lords of the said Committee, having taken the said appeal into consideration, reported to His Majesty in Council that the appeal ought to be dismissed and the said Scheme approved:

And whereas His Majesty was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, by Order of the 9th day of May, 1941, to approve the said Report:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to affirm the said Scheme and to order that the Benefices therein recommended to be united shall be united to the extent and for the purposes recommended in the said Scheme and further to order and direct that the said Scheme and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately from and after the date when this Order shall have been duly published in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measures.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Carlisle.

Rupert B. Howorth.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 30th day of May, 1941.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have, in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 2nd day of November,
