

We have received an Account of the Elector Palatine's arrival at Weynheim, where he intends to continue some time; His Electoral Highness in his Journey thither visited the new Fortifications at Nankheim, which he found in good forwardness. They write from Bamberg, that the Elector of Rhine went some days ago to Heisfeld, between that Place and Bairath, where he had an Interview with the Margrave of Bairath, after which he returned to Bamberg.

Stewick, August 20. The Troops belonging to the King of Sweden and the Duke of Holftein, which are lately drawn together in these Parts, are making a Line from the Eyder to Hufsum. It's said, the Danish Troops quartered at Giuckstad and Itzehoe have Orders to hinder this Work, but we have yet no Account of their being on their March for this purpose.

Brussels, August 25. The Elector of Bavaria went from hence on the 19th Instant to view the Fortifications of Mons, and to review his Regiment of Guards which is quartered there, and he is expected back to morrow. The Electress has been very ill since her lying in, but is now pretty well recovered. The Project of making a new Canal in Flanders is wholly laid aside, and it's said, the States of the Spanish Netherlands have some Thoughts of recalling the Placets they have lately published for prohibiting the Importation of Foreign Goods. The Count of Tirimonz and the Sieur Brouckhovens, Commissioners from Spain for settling the Limits in the Netherlands, are still here, and the Council of State is frequently assembled, to consider of the Instructions to be given them touching some Difficulties that are arisen between them and the French Commissioners, and as soon as they have received them, they will return to Lisse to renew the Conferences.

Loo, August 25. On Tuesday in the afternoon His Majesty went to Dieren, and returned hither on Saturday last. The Count de Dhona, Envoy Extraordinary from the Elector of Brandenburgh, arrived here the last week from the Hague, to wait on His Majesty, and will return in a day or two to Holland. The Duke of Wirtemberg, General of the Dutch Infantry, came hither yesterday to receive His Majesty's further Orders touching the Review near Aernhem, which will begin on Tuesday next, and last four days. Mr. Read, Steward to my Lord Paget, is arrived here in three weeks from Andrinople with Letters to the King from the Grand Signior and the Grand Visier, acknowledging His Majesty's good Offices in Mediating the Peace lately concluded between the Christian Princes and the Port.

Hague, August 25. The Regiment of Horse-Guards were reviewed yesterday morning by the Earl of Portland, and are to begin their March to Arnhem next Thursday, and the Regiment of Foot-Guards are to follow the next day. The Count de Prael, Ambassador Extraordinary from the Duke of Savoy, is returned hither from Loo, and intends shortly to be going for England. The Heer Dyckvelt, who has been to wait on His Majesty at Loo, is likewise returned hither, and it's said, he is shortly to go again to Brussels.

Paris, August 26. N. S. The Court continues at Marli. The Princess of Dombes, Daughter to the Duke of Maine, is lately dead; as is also Monsieur Gondreville, Governor of Schelfet, in Alsace. Our Letters from Havre de Grace of the 22d Instant say, Monsieur Farban, Chief Engineer to the King, was come to that Place to give Directions for several Works to be made for the Improvement of that Port.

Portsmouth, August 17. His Majesty's Ships the Arandel and Carlise are sailed from St. Helens to the Westward.

Desic, August 17. Divers outward-bound Merchant Ships, to the number of about 40, sailed from hence yesterday to the Westward, the Wind being at N. N. E.
