Constantinople, Offeber 13. N.S.

THE Grand Signor having resolved to remove to this Place for Andrewest, the Aga with the Janizaries under his Command marched from the secon the 26 of singust, and the Grand Signor with his whole Court set on the 28th, and arrived here the 7th of the last Month. My Lord Pager, Ambassider from the King of Gress-Stream, came inter on the 16th of September, and made a very noble fin ry, all the English Genete win and Merchants here went as far as Ponte-Grande, to wait on his Excellency, and to accompany him him Town. The same day came into our Post an Envoy Extraordinary from the Czur of Miscony, on heard a Frigat of 36 Guns, in 6 days from Arch which very much su prized the Tarks, to see a Ship of War come from these Parts. The Business this Envoy is seen about, is said to be to conside the Times of noticed at Girlwaire between the Czar and the Salvan, and to nog ciate he Constitutation of ittor a longer from of Years, or to conclude a Peace. The Envoy Extracrdinary of Poland having similated his Negociation at this Court, which related chiefly to the Evacuation of Caminese, had Audience of Leave of the Grand Signior this day, and will see out from home in a day or two on his return home. We have received an account, that the Grand Signior's Forces four out against the Arabina that were in Arms near Babylon, have Engaged and totaly routed them, so that this Rebellion is entirely supposed.

Venice, Octov. 30. The Dutchess Downger of Hanouer arrived here the 27th Instant from Modena, and yesterday she left this Place in order to continue her Journey to Vienna, whither she is going to be present at the lying in of the Queen of the Romans her Daughter. A confiderable Sum of Money was fent last week to General Mocenigo, to pay the Venetian Forces under his Command in Dalmatia. Our Letters from thence give an Account, that the Commissioners for regulating the Limits continue their Conferences, and have already made to great a Progress therein, that it's not doubted but they will have fully executed their Commission before Winter. The Duke of Mantua is returned hither from Rovigo. Signior Pifani, who was Proveditore of the Venetian Army in the Morea, is arrived here from that Country.

Warfaw, Ostob. 24. Most of the Senators appointed to confer with Baron Overbeck and Monsheur Werner, Deputies from the Elector of Brandenburgo, in order to put the last Hand to the Treaty for accommodating the Affair of Elbing, are returned hither from the Country; and the Cardinal Primate is daily expected here from Raddinarity on the same occasion. Prince Alexander Schiekt, one of the Sons of the late King of Polland, is dangerously ill. It's reported here, that the Grand Signior being dislatisfied with the Conduct of the Bassi of Caminies, has caused him to be strangled.

Copinbagin, Nov. 7. The Body of the late King of Dinnark, which lies at present in a Mausoleum in the King's Chapel, will be carried on the 12th Infant to Roofibild, to be there Interred with the Kings his Piedecessors; and the Ministers and Great Officers of State, the Knights of the several Danish Orders, and other Persons of Quality, have Orders to be then ready to assist at this Solemnity; It's said, that the King will soon after begin his Journey to Holstein. The Troops quartered in Justand are ordered to repair thither, and they began their March on Sunday last; This morning a Battalion of the Prince Royal's Regiment lest rhis Place in order to join them, and will be followed on the 5th Instant by the 3 Battalions of the Foot-Guards; All these Forces have their Rendezvous near Rentburg, where it's said the Danes will have an Army of about 15000 Men, under the Command of the Duke of Wirtemberg, who intends to be going thither in 2 or 3 days. The Danish Squadron, according to the last Accounts we have from them, lay off the Island of Bornholme.

the 27th Instant give an Account. That Count Otting was come to that Place in his Journey to Turkey, having been treated with all the Respect due to his Character by the Governors of Presburgh, Raab, Gran, and the other Places through which he passed. They write from Peter-Waradin, that the German Forces employed in building the new Fortifications near Arat, use their utmost Diligence to put them into a condition of Desence. The Bishop of Passau arrived here yesterday from Passau, and will be going in sew days to Ratisbone, to reside as the Empetor's First Commissioner at the Diet. The Count of Lemberg will likewise shortly part from hence on his Embassy to Rome.

hence on his Embassy to Rome.

Francfort, November 7. The Elector Palatine is still at Newstadt, but is expected from thence in a few days at Weynheim, and after a short stay in that Place, will return to Dusseldorp, whither he has already sent part of his Equipage. Baron Muller, Envoy from the King of Sweden, is on his Departure from hence to Nancy, having received Orders from the King his Master, to Compliment the Duke and Dutchess of Lorrain in his Name, on the Birth of their Son.

Hamburgh, Novemb. 10. We have Letters from Stralfund of the 7th Instant, which give an Account, That the Squadron of Swedish Men of War was arrived at the Isle of Rugen, on the Coast of Pomeren, and having put ashore 4 Regiments of Foot, making together about 5000 Men, they returned to Sueden. Our Lecters from Saxeny say, the King and Queen of Poland continued at Torgaw; And that Mon-sieur Opdam, Envoy Extraordinary from Holland, was come thither from Berlin to Coinpliment them on the part of the States General. They write from Berlin, that Mr. Stepney, Envoy Extraordinary from His Majesty of Great Britain, left that Place on the 2d of this Month on his return to England; And that the Elector of Brandenburgh is gone from Oranieburgh to Paisdam.
