

dot to the Emperor is on his way hither from Raab; He makes very little Journeys by reason of his numerous Attendance. Four or five of his Retinue have died suddenly, which gave a suspicion of some Contagious Distemper among them, which is very frequent in Turkey, but upon strict enquiry it appears to be without any ground. Besides the Prisoners that have been exchanged, the Turkish Ambassador brings with him 3 or 4 Persons of Quality that were taken during the late War, to whom the Grand Signior, in Compliment to the Emperor, has given their Liberty without any Ransom, and General Veterani is said to be one of them. The Count of Zedelinsky, Envoy from the Emperor to the King of Poland, will return in few days to his Station at Warsaw. The Bishop of Lerida, Ambassador from Spain, intends very soon to return home, as does likewise the Cardinal Santa Croce Nuncio from the Pope, and the Baron Tettau Envoy from the Landgrave of Hesse Cassel.

Hamburg, Jan. 15. The Duke of Wirtemberg is returned to this Place, after having Reviewed all the Danish Forces that are Quartered in the Duchy of Holstein; 'Tis said, he has given Directions for marking out the Ground for a Camp near Kjehl, that may contain about 12000 Men. The Letters from Copenhagen of the 12th Instant give an Account, that the King of Denmark being informed that a Body of the Forces of Lunenburgh are ready to enter into the Duchy of Holstein, and to assist the Holsteiners in case they are attacked, he has sent Orders to the Commanders of his Forces in Holstein to do all they can to secure the Passes on the River Elbe, and that he intends to send Ministers to the Princes Directors of the Circle of Lower Saxony upon the occasion of the Difference between him and the Duke of Holstein, and has appointed Monsieur Osten, who was Great-Marshal to the late King his Father, to go with the Character of his Envoy Extraordinary to the Elector of Brandenburg. Our Advices from Leipzig say, the King of Poland continues in that City, and has put off for some days his return to Warsaw.
