- These Appointments and Awards are in addition to those already approved for services in these convoys and published in London Gazette Supplement No. 35648 of 30th July, 1942.
- For courage and skill while serving in H.M. Motor Gun Boats and Motor Torpedo Boats in action against the Enemy in the Channel:
- The Distinguished Service Cross.*
 Lieutenant George Dick Kendall Richards, Royal Navy.
 Lieutenant George Lennox Cotton, R.N.V.R.
- The Conspicuous Gallantry Medal.*
 Stoker First Class Robert Jenkins Spinks, D/KX.102770.
- In action against the enemy all the engine-room staff were killed or seriously wounded save Stoker Spinks, whose leg was broken. A fire started in the engine-room but he put it out. Later he was wounded in the other leg, but insisted on being lowered into the engine-room, now in darkness and full of fumes. Here he gave orders to other members of the crew and got the boat under way, but at length fainted from exhaustion. By his great devotion to duty the ship's company were saved.
- The Distinguished Service Medal.*
 Leading Seaman Albert Collins, D/JX.140250.
- Mention in Despatches.*
 Temporary Sub-Lieutenant Philip Sydney Marshall, R.N.V.R.
