

Act, directed to be removed to a criminal lunatic asylum or to the criminal lunatic department of Perth prison or to an asylum, or is a person placed in an institution or a certified house or under guardianship under section four of the Mental Deficiency and Lunacy (Scotland) Act, 1913, or is the subject of an order under section seven, nine, or ten of that Act; or

(i) is certified by a local authority, as defined by the Blind Persons Acts, 1920 and 1938, to be registered as a blind person under arrangements made by the authority under those Acts; or

(j) is a married woman not living apart from her husband under a decree or order of any Court or a woman who has living with her a child of hers under the age of fourteen, including a step-child and an illegitimate child and, if the adoption took place before the passing of the National Service (No. 2) Act, 1941, an adopted child (whether adopted under the Adoption of Children Act, 1926, the Adoption of Children (Scotland) Act, 1930, or otherwise):

And whereas it is also enacted by the National Service (Armed Forces) Act, 1939, that any person who at the commencement of that Act was registered under the Military Training Act, 1939, or who was required to be so registered at any time before the commencement of the National Service (Armed Forces) Act, 1939, shall be liable to be called up for service under the last mentioned Act notwithstanding that he may not be so liable by virtue of any Proclamation made under that Act:

And whereas by Our Proclamations dated the first day of October, 1939, the first day of December, 1939, the first day of January, 1940, the ninth day of May, 1940, the twenty-ninth day of January, 1941, the twenty-seventh day of November, 1941, the eighteenth day of December, 1941, the fifth day of March, 1942, the twenty-third day of July, 1942, and the twenty-second day of October, 1942, We did in pursuance of the said Acts direct, declare and proclaim that certain of Our male subjects therein mentioned were liable under those Acts to be called up for service in Our Armed Forces and that certain of Our women subjects therein mentioned were liable under those Acts to be called up for service in the Women's Royal Naval Service, the Auxiliary Territorial Service and the Women's Auxiliary Air Force:

Now, therefore, We do in pursuance of the National Service Acts, 1939 to 1942, hereby direct, declare and proclaim that with the exceptions hereinafter mentioned—

(1) all Our male subjects who at the date of this Our Proclamation have attained the age of eighteen years but have not attained the age of forty-six years and who are, at the date of this Our Proclamation, within Great Britain or who, not having been in Great Britain at that date, subsequently enter it, are on the date hereof or on the date on which they first subsequently enter Great Britain after the date hereof, by this Our Proclamation liable under the said Acts to be called up for service in Our Armed Forces: and

(2) all Our male subjects who, at any time after the date of this Our Proclamation, attain the age of eighteen years and are then within Great Britain or who, not then being in Great Britain subsequently enter it, are, on attaining that age, or on the date on which they first subsequently enter Great Britain after attaining that age, by this Our Proclamation liable under the said Acts to be called up for service in Our Armed Forces: and

(3) all Our women subjects who, at the date of this Our Proclamation, have attained the age of nineteen years but have not attained the age of thirty-one years and who are at the date of this Our Proclamation within Great Britain or who, not having been in Great Britain at that date, subsequently enter it are on the date hereof or on the date on which they first subsequently enter Great Britain after the date hereof, by this Our Proclamation liable under the said Acts to be called up for service in the Women's Royal Naval Service, the Auxiliary Territorial Service and the Women's Auxiliary Air Force: and

(4) all Our women subjects who, at any time after the date of this Our Proclamation, attain the age of nineteen years and are then within Great Britain or who, not then being in Great Britain, subsequently enter it, are on attaining that age or on the date on which they first subsequently enter Great Britain after attaining that age, by this Our Proclamation liable under the said Acts to be called up for service in the Women's Royal Naval Service, the Auxiliary Territorial Service and the Women's Auxiliary Air Force.

And We do hereby order Our Minister of Labour and National Service to give all necessary directions herein accordingly.

Given at Our Court at Buckingham Palace, this Thirteenth day of January, in the year of our Lord one thousand nine hundred and forty-three and in the Seventh year of Our Reign.

GOD SAVE THE KING.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of January, 1943.

Present,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS there was this day read at the Board a Memorial from the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty, dated the 23rd day of December, 1942 (N. 26224/42), in the words following, viz:—

"Whereas by Section 3 of the Naval and Marine Pay and Pensions Act, 1865, it is enacted, inter alia, that all pay, pensions, or other allowances in the nature thereof, payable in respect of services in Your Majesty's Naval or Marine Force to a person being or having been an Officer, Seaman, or Marine therein, shall be paid in such manner, and subject to such restrictions, conditions, and provisions, as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas by Order in Council dated the 9th November, 1934, the grant of a special duty allowance of 3d. a day was sanctioned to Telegraphist ratings:

"And whereas we consider it desirable that this allowance should be extended to Telegraphist ratings (S.O.):

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased to sanction with effect from the 10th December, 1942, the grant of this special allowance to Telegraphist ratings (S.O.) provided a proper standard of proficiency is attained.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified their concurrence in this proposal."

His Majesty, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

And the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 13th day of January, 1943.

Present,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 10th day of December, 1942, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, Chapter 37, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for authorising the sale and disposal of certain property situate in the County of York now vested in us:

"Whereas the property, particulars whereof are set forth in the Schedule hereunder written, is now vested in us not subject to any outstanding beneficial lease or grant but in possession and we are desirous of selling the same or some portion thereof for the improvement of our Common Fund:

"Now, therefore, we humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty that we may be authorised and empowered to sell or dispose of and duly to transfer or convey from time to time all or part of the said property described in the said Schedule for such consideration as shall appear to us to be just and reasonable.
