

under the power conferred upon them by sub-section (2) of the said section, specified the following class of works for making good war damage:—

Works costing more than £100 to be executed for making good war damage sustained by any one hereditament situated within the following area:—

In the Urban District of Barnet, an area bounded by the centre line of the following streets:—

On the north-east—St. Albans Road—(that part between Alston Road and High Street).

On the east—High Street, Church Passage—(that part between St. Albans Road and Church Passage).

On the south—Wood Street—(that part between Church Passage and The Avenue).

On the west—The Avenue.

On the north-west—Alston Road.

The War Damage Commission also give notice that they, under the power conferred upon them by the aforementioned sub-section, impose on any person, who proposes to execute for making good war damage any works (other than temporary works) of the above specified class, an obligation to inform the War Damage Commission of the proposal, and thereafter to furnish to them such particulars of the proposed works as they may require in any particular case.

In this notice a "hereditament" means either a hereditament as appearing in the rating valuation list, or, in the case of a hereditament which is exempt from rating and does not appear in that list, the hereditament so exempted, provided that where there is more than one occupation of a single building, the hereditament shall be the building.

Ministry of Fuel and Power—January, 1943.

NORTHWICH GAS.

Application for Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts, 1920 to 1934.

NOTICE is hereby given that application is intended to be made to the Minister of Fuel and Power by the Northwich Gas Company (hereinafter called "the Company") whose address is 97-99, Witton Street, Northwich, for a Special Order under the Gas Undertakings Acts, 1920 to 1934, for all or some of the following (amongst other) purposes (that is to say):—

1. To extend the limits within which the Company are authorised to supply gas so as to include certain areas (hereinafter referred to as "the added limits") to be defined in the intended Order and to provide that the Company shall have and may exercise within the added limits all powers rights and privileges which they have within their existing limits of supply.

2. To increase the maximum price which the Company may charge for gas supplied by them within the limits of supply and to provide that the provisions of the intended Order relating thereto shall have effect as though they were contained in an Order made under Section 1 of the Gas Regulation Act, 1920.

3. To increase the respective amounts of the Company's authorised share and loan capital; to enact special provisions as to the offer of new share capital of the Company to their consumers and employees for subscription.

4. To repeal or amend some of the provisions of the Northwich Gas Acts, 1882 and 1915, and the Northwich Gas (Charges) Order, 1929.

5. To incorporate with the Order with or without modification or to render inapplicable all or some of the provisions of the Companies Clauses Consolidation Act, 1845, the Companies Clauses Act, 1863, the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1847, and the Gasworks Clauses Act, 1871.

6. A description of the areas referred to in paragraph 1 hereof may be inspected on or before the 16th day of February, 1943, at the offices of the Company as aforesaid and of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents.

7. Any local or other public authority company or person desiring to bring before the Minister of Fuel and Power any objection to the draft Order may do so by registered letter addressed to the Assistant Secretary, Ministry of Fuel and Power, New Oxford House, Bloomsbury Way, London, W.C.1, and despatched on or before the 16th day of February, 1943. Any such objection shall state—

(a) the specific grounds of objection; and

(b) the omissions, additions or modifications asked for.

A copy of the objection must be forwarded to the undermentioned Solicitors or Parliamentary Agents at the same time as it is sent to the Minister of Fuel and Power.

8. A copy of the draft Order and an Ordnance Map or photographic copy thereof showing the boundaries of the existing and proposed areas of supply and the existing gas lands of the Company have been deposited for public inspection at the offices of the Company as aforesaid and with the Clerk of the County Council of the administrative county of Chester at his office at County Offices, Chester.

Printed copies of the draft Order may be obtained at the offices of the Company as aforesaid and of the undermentioned Solicitors and Parliamentary Agents at the price of one shilling per copy.

Dated this 14th day of January, 1943.
