

of the endowments of the said Benefice of Barnstaple and such capital sum shall be appropriated by Queen Anne's Bounty for the augmentation of the last mentioned Benefice."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace the 20th day of April, 1943.

PRESENT

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 15th day of April, 1943, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of a share of and in the Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Churches and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of The Orchestons in the County of Wilts and in the Diocese of Salisbury:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice is at present exercisable alternately by Sir Alleyne Percival Boxall, Baronet, as surviving executor of the will of the late Mrs. Catherine Jane Prothero of 27 Southampton Road, Salisbury, Widow, and by the Master, Fellows and Scholars of Clare College, Cambridge:

"And whereas the said Alleyne Percival Boxall desires to transfer the alternate right of patronage exercisable by him as aforesaid to the Bishop of Salisbury for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Neville, Bishop of Salisbury (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the share exercisable by the said Alleyne Percival Boxall of and in the Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of The Orchestons shall be transferred to the said Neville Bishop of Salisbury and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Salisbury for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Salisbury.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of April, 1943.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 25th day of March, 1943, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared and now lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme pursuant to the Episcopal Endowments and Stipends Measure, 1943, for vesting in us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, all endowments and other property belonging to, or held in trust for, the Archbishopric of York or the Archbishop thereof and for securing to the said Archbishop the reduced stipend deemed by us appropriate:

"Whereas the Most Reverend and Right Honourable Cyril Forster, Archbishop of York, was in occupation of the See at the date of the passing of the aforesaid Measure and has requested us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, to prepare a Scheme with respect to the See:

"And whereas we have prepared this Scheme accordingly after consultation with the Diocesan Board of Finance of the Diocese of York, who have offered no objection thereto:

"And whereas the said Cyril Forster, Archbishop of York, has approved the Scheme and in testimony of his approval has appended his signature to the Scheme:

"And whereas the Right Honourable Winston Spencer Churchill, First Lord of Your Majesty's Treasury, acting on behalf of Your Majesty, has signified to us his consent to the preparation and submission of the Scheme to Your Majesty in Council:

"And whereas the endowments and property of the See of York or held in trust therefor or for the Archbishop thereof are described and referred to in the Schedule hereunder written:

"And whereas under certain Acts of Parliament the annual income of the Archbishop is £9,000 receivable either from the endowments and property set out in Parts II and III of the Schedule or, during such time as we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, may be authorised to retain the rents and profits of the endowments and property, from our common fund:

"And whereas the Archbishop is required by the Episcopal Pensions Measure, 1926, to pay to us an annual contribution for the purposes of that Measure of £105:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, recommend and propose that upon and from the 6th day of April, 1943, all the endowments and other property described and referred to in the said Schedule shall vest in us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, pursuant to the Episcopal Endowments and Stipends Measure, 1943, and that we shall be entitled to the rents and profits thereof from the said 6th day of April, 1943.

"And we further recommend and propose that, in lieu of the said annual income of £9,000 and the benefit of the archiepiscopal residence of Bishopthorpe, the Archbishop for the time being of the See shall be entitled to receive from us by equal quarterly instalments in respect of the quarters ended on the 5th day of January, the 5th day of April, the 5th day of July and the 5th day of October in every year, the first such instalment to be the full quarter's payment due for the quarter ended on the 5th day of July, 1943, a reduced annual stipend comprising the sum of £4,500 and also such sum, not exceeding £800 in any one year, as we shall have been satisfied has become duly chargeable by him in connection with the travelling required in and for the carrying out of his official duties and obligations as Archbishop.

"And we further recommend and propose that the annual contribution payable to us by the Archbishop under the Episcopal Pensions Measure, 1926, shall remain £105, notwithstanding the reduction hereby effected in the stipend of the Archbishop.

"THE SCHEDULE.

Part I.

"All that the archiepiscopal residence or mansion house known as 'Bishopthorpe' together with the Chapel, outbuildings, cottages, water tower and other buildings and the yards, gardens, pleasure
