EMPLOYEE DIRECTORS

Amendments to Scheme

THAT the following amendments be made to the Scheme for the Election of 'Employees' Directors until the cessation of the emergency that was the occasion of the passing of the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939 —

A Paragraph 4 shall be deleted

B Paragraphs 9, 10 and 10 (a) shall be deleted and the following paragraphs shall be substituted therefor —

(9) The Employees' Directors who held office after the yearly election held in March 1940 shall continue to hold office until the Co-partnership Committee with the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company shall resolve that an election shall be held

On the happening of this event all the Employees' Directors then in office shall retire and three Employees' Directors shall be elected. A retiring Employees' Director, if duly qualified, shall be eligible for re-election

(10) (i) After the holding of such election as is mentioned in the last preceding paragraph, elections of Employees' Directors shall be held whenever the Co-partnership Committee with the approval of the Board of Directors of the Company so resolve, provided that

(a) no longer period than three years shall elapse between two elections, and

(b) save as provided by Sub-paragraph (5) hereof not more than one election shall take place each year

(2) At such election—

(a) In the event of less than two complete years having elapsed since the last election, then one Employees' Director shall retire and one Employees' Director shall be elected

(b) In the event of more than two complete years but less than three complete years having elapsed since the last election, then two Employees' Directors shall retire and two Employees' Directors shall be elected

(c) In the event of more than three complete years having elapsed since the last election, all three Employees' Directors shall retire and three Employees' Directors shall be elected. A retiring Employees' Director, if duly qualified, shall be eligible for re-election—

(3) Unless all three Employees' Directors shall retire at the same time, the Employees' Director or Directors to retire shall be the senior or seniors in office. As between Employees' Directors of equal seniority, the Director or Directors to retire shall be chosen by lot.

(4) Employees' Directors who shall retire shall, if otherwise qualified, continue in office until their successors are elected.

(5) If an Employees' Director shall die or resign or leave the service of the Company or cease to hold the necessary qualification, a successor shall be elected at a date to be fixed by the Board of Directors of the Company within two months. Such successor shall for the purposes of Sub-paragraph (3) be deemed to have been elected when the Employees' Director to whom he succeeds was elected

Adopted by the shareholders 25th February, 1943, at the Annual Ordinary Meeting

Approved by the Ministry of Fuel and Power 19th February, 1943
