

November, 1929, and published in the London Gazette of the 8th day of that month for uniting the Benefices of Bramfield and Stapleford in the Diocese of St. Albans directed that the proceeds of sale of the former parsonage house of Bramfield should be paid by us into the Diocesan Expenses Fund of the Diocese established pursuant to the Union of Benefices Measure, 1923, and should be invested and held therein pending the preparation of a Supplementary Scheme as a distinct sum of Stock and the interest thereon accumulated subject to payment from the interest of £60 per annum to the Incumbent of the United Benefice so long as a pension charge of £80 per annum on the revenues of the United Benefice should continue:

"And whereas the original Order deferred preparation of the said Supplementary Scheme during the continuance of the said pension charge if that should be more than ten years when the final application of the whole of the said sum of Stock was to be proposed:

"And whereas the said sum of Stock with the invested accumulated interest now amounts to £6,253 17s. 4d. £3 per cent. Redemption Stock:

"And whereas the said pension charge is still in force:

"And whereas we are of opinion that final application of a part of the said sum of Stock should now be made, and the final application of the remainder postponed until such time as we and the Bishop may hereafter deem suitable:

"Now, therefore, we, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop of St. Albans (testified by his signing this Scheme) humbly recommend and propose that upon the day when any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette the provisions in the original Order relating to the said sum of £6,253 17s. 4d. £3 per cent. Redemption Stock shall be varied as follows:—

"(1) A sum of Stock sufficient to produce £1,500 net cash shall be sold by us and the said £1,500 shall be appropriated for and towards the cost of improvements sanctioned by us to the parsonage house of the United Benefice.

"(2) A sum of £2,000 of the said Stock shall be transferred to the United Benefice and be held by us as part of the endowment thereof and the payment of £60 per annum directed by the original Order to be made by us to the Incumbent of the United Benefice shall cease and determine on the 31st March, 1943, from which date the Incumbent shall receive interest on the sum of £2,000 Stock so transferred.

"(3) The residue of the said sum of Stock or other the securities from any reinvestment thereof shall continue to be held by us and the interest thereon accumulated as a distinct fund pending the preparation of a Supplementary Scheme to determine the final application thereof in accordance with the provisions of paragraph (3) of the original Order except as to the limitation of time therein directed for preparation of the Supplementary Scheme:

"Provided that, if no Supplementary Scheme has been prepared within seven years from the date hereof, the securities then held pursuant to the foregoing direction shall be transferred and held by us for the benefit of the United Benefice without any further assurance in the law or Order of Your Majesty in Council."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Supplementary Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Supplementary Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Supplementary Scheme, and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.
