CENTRAL CHANCERY OF THE ORDERS OF KNIGHTHOOD.

St. James's Palace, S.W.1.

13th July, 1943.

The KING has been graciously pleased to give orders for the undermentioned award of the British Empire Medal for brave conduct:—

Awarded the British Empire Medal (Civil Division):—

Poon Lim, Second Steward, Merchant Navy.

When his ship was torpedoed and sunk, Second Steward Poon Lim was washed overboard. After being in the water for about two hours he managed to reach a raft on which he existed alone for 133 days, before being picked up by a fishing boat. On the raft there were provisions for about 50 days but before this time elapsed, Poon Lim improvised a fishing hook and line and, using biscuit for bait, caught a number of small fish which he later used as bait for larger fish. He also caught seagulls which settled on the raft. When the water supply ran out, he was without water for five days, but was subsequently able to catch enough rain water for his needs, using the covering material of his lifejacket for the purpose.

Poon Lim displayed exceptional courage, fortitude and resource in overcoming the tremendous difficulties with which he was faced during the long and dangerous voyage on the raft.
