Rome, June 5. The Great Duke of Tuscany continues here, and has visited the several Churches to obtain the Indulgences which are granted on account of the Jubilee. The Pope has made him divers noble Presents, and has promised him several Relicks, and particularly the Body of St. Stephen, his Highness being Great Master of the Knights of the Order of St. Stephen, instituted by one of his Ancestors. The Great Duke of Tuscany resolving to be here Incognito, and not to receive or pay any Visits of Ceremony, the Pope invited him to the Palace, and being brought into a Chamber adjoining to that where the Consistory is held, when the Consistory was over and the Pope was retired, all the Cardinals that were there came to the Great Duke, and made him their Compliments. The Queen Dowager of Poland, and the Princes Alexander and Constantine her Sons, are still here. The Pope has wholly put off his Journey to Porto Anzo. The Prince of Monaco, Ambassador from France, has had Audience of the Pope, to acquaint him, that the Most Christian King is very well pleased with the choice he has made, of Signior Gualtieri to be his Nuntio at the Court of France.

Leghorne, June 6. The Gallies which attended the Great Duke of Tuscany to Nettuno, are come back to Porto Ferrajo; His Highness intends to return hither from Rome by Land, and may be expected about the middle of this month. A Ship belonging to this Place took lately in the Levant a Turkish Vessel, which was bound from Scanderoon to Constantinople, and laden with Coffee and Rice, and carried her to Malta. A French Vessel is come in here in 15 days from Tunis, the Matter whereof reports, that the Dey of Tunis was preparing to bring into the Field an Army of 16000 Men, and 30 Pieces of Cannon, but it was not known upon what design.

Venice, June 11. An Express was sent this week with further Instructions to Signior Grimani, Commissioner from this Republick in Dalmatia, who has renewed his Conferences with the Turkish Commissioner for settling the Limits in these Parts. Signior Gabrisli Zorzi, who was chosen to be Ambassador from this State at Vienna, being made a Procurator of St. Mark, is excused from that Employment, and the Senate have made choice of Signior Baptista Nani, to go to Vienna with the same Character.

From the Saxon Camp near Riga, June 8. N. S. We have received Advice, that the Swedish Army, which is encamped near Riga, has within these few days been joined by 4000 Men more from Finland, and that they expect a further Reinforcement of 6000. They continue to ply us very warmly from two Batteries they have lately made, the one in an Island, and the other on a flat Boat in the River Dvina, and they have made a Bridge from their side of the River to the said Island. Yesterday a Detachment from the Swedish Camp came over the River in Boats at Jonsfrenhoff; but the Forces that lately joined us from Lithuania, which are encamped over-against that Place, obliged them to repass the River with the loss of divers of their Men.

Mittaw, June 11. General Fleming is daily expected here from Warsaw in his way to the Saxon Camp near Riga, his Equipage being already arrived. The Swedes continue on the other side the Dvina; They have received a Reinforcement of 4000 Men, and expect to be joined very soon by 6000 more, after which 'tis said they will pass the Dvina, and attack the Saxons, who in the meantime are intrenching themselves. The Reports we have had, that the Moscovites were assembling some Troops in order to assist the Saxons by making a Diversion against the
