

34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39 and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39 and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of St. John, Markyate Street, in the County of Hertford and in the Diocese of St. Albans:

"Whereas we are satisfied that Ernest Albert Sursham of Markyate Cell, Markyate, in the said county of Hertford Esquire, is the Patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Ernest Albert Sursham desires to transfer the Advowson of the said Benefice to the Bishop of St. Albans for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Michael, Bishop of St. Albans (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of St. John, Markyate Street, shall be transferred to the said Michael, Bishop of St. Albans, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of St. Albans for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Saint Albans.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of October, 1943.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of October, 1943, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty, Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Gaywood with Bawsey and Mintlyn in the County of Norfolk and in the Diocese of Norwich:

"Whereas we are satisfied that Madame La Douairiere Pleasance Grace Rose Klerck, of Holland, widow, Sir John Picton Bagge, baronet, C.M.G., and Neville Southcote Mansergh, of Salisbury Club, Salisbury, Southern Rhodesia, retired Chief Commissioner of Police, as executors of the Will of the late Sir Richard Ludwig Bagge, of Gaywood Hall in the said County of Norfolk, are the Patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Pleasance Grace Rose Klerck, John Picton Bagge and Neville Southcote Mansergh desire to transfer the Advowson of the said Benefice to the Bishop of Norwich for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Percy, Bishop of Norwich (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Gaywood with Bawsey and Mintlyn shall be transferred to the said Percy, Bishop of Norwich, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Norwich for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Norwich.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 28th day of October, 1943.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 7th day of October, 1943, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 108, and of the Act of the 21st and 22nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 57, which Acts are known as 'The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts', and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for an appropriation to our common fund of certain endowments of the Benefice of West Halton in the County and Diocese of Lincoln:

"Whereas under the authority of the said Acts the annual value of the said Benefice has been improved by virtue of a lease dated the 7th day of February, 1907, as varied by two supplemental deeds dated respectively the 1st day of March, 1917, and the 31st day of December, 1937, of certain beds, veins and strata of ironstone and sand, which lease and supplemental deeds are hereinafter together referred to as the said lease:

"And whereas the rents, royalties and other reservations by the said lease reserved and made payable to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, have been invested by us from time to time as the same have been received and the investments so made include (inter alia) a sum of £13,338 18s. 9d. 2½ per centum per annum London County Stock and a sum of £4,758 1s. 6d. 3½ per centum per annum Conversion Stock, together producing £500 per annum, which sums of stock are now held by us subject to the provisions contained in the said Acts and Measure:

"And whereas the improvement in the annual value of the said Benefice arising from the said lease exceeds the annual sum of £500, and after the appropriation and transfer hereinafter recommended for the benefit of our common fund the said Benefice will still be left with an average annual income exceeding £800:

"And whereas the Reverend Archibald Reith is the present incumbent of the said Benefice of West Halton:
