Rome, Sept. 4. N. S.

THE P.ope continues extrem ill, Last week he sent for the Cardinals of the Palace, and gave the Bishoprick of Viterbo to Cardinal Sancta Croce, and that of Osimo to Signior Gozadini, his Chamberlain, and made Cardinal Cenci Vice-Legate of Bologna. Cardinal Albano endeavoured to persuade him to declare the two Cardinals he reserved in Petto to do the last Promotion, but he has not yet thought fit to do so. All the French Servants of Cardinal de Bouillon's have left him since his Disgrace, pursuant to the Most Christian King's Order, except only his Steward; But several of the Cardinals have offered him their Services, and particularly Cardinal Nigroni has desired him to make use of his Palace in this City. The Cardinals Homodei and N.ri are both very much indisposed; and we hear Cardinal Duressi is very ill at Florence. The Letters from Naples say, the Viceroy of that Kingdom has begun to put in execution the King of Spain's late Order, for suppressing divers Persons and Supernumerary Offices.

Genoa, Sept. 5. The Squadron of French Gallies, commanded by the Chevalier de Nautils, are still in this Port, expecting a Supply of Provisions from Marseilles, and when they have received it, they will proceed on their Voyage to Civita-Vecchia. The Spanish Envoy arriving here has received Orders from Madrid, to go with the like Character to the Court of Savoy. The last Advice from Algiers say, the Affairs of that Government are in great Disorder, the Bey of Tunis on one side, and the King of Morocco on the other, being at War with them; His said, the Algerines have lately gained a Victory over the Army of Morocco, but they have not the like Success against the Tunisians, who have totally routed their Forces, and laid Siege to Constantina and Erna, two of the most consider'd Places in the Kingdom of Algiers.

Venice, Sept. 10. The Senate has given Orders, That the Magazines of their Frontier Places in Terra firma be filled with Ammunition and Provisions, and their Fortifications kept in good Repair. Don Juan Carlos Bacan is arrived here with the Character of Ambassador from Spain. Signior Giovanni Francisco Morosini, who was appointed to go with the Character of Ambassador from this Republick to the Imperial Court in the room of Signior Francisco Lovedano, who is recalled, has excus'd himself from this Employment, and paid the usual Fine, and the Senate will soon proceed to a new Choice. Signior Mocenigo, who is named to go in the Quality of Ambassador from this State to England, expects the Senate's last Orders to proceed on his Journey. The Convey that is preparing here is almost ready, and will sail in few days with a considerable quantity of Provisions and Ammunition, and Recruits for the Venetian Forces in the Levant. The Letters from thence say, Captain-General Cornaro was come from Napoli di Romania to Coron in the Morona, and would shortly return to Venice. The Captain-Bassa Mezzemorto was sail'd towards the Isle of Scio with 12 Men of War and 20 Gallies, in order to raise the usual Tribute paid to the Grand Signior by the Islands in the Archipelago that are under his Dominion. The Captain-Bassa has desired Leave of the Grand Signior to resign his Employment, in Consideration of his very great Age, which 'tis believed will be granted him at his Return to Constantinople.

From the King of Poland's Camp before Riga, Sept. 4. We have at length received our heavy Cannon and Mortars, and are at work in placing them upon the Batteries, in order to the Bombarding of Riga. Last night a Detachment of our Forces took a Post near the Town, and the Besieged made a Sally to regain it, but were beaten back by a Party of 500 Men who were sent to support the Saxons. Several Parties have been sent out into the Country, who have brought back with them a considerable Booty. We have Advice that Count Walling, with the Swedish Forces under his Command, has Intrenched himself in an advantageous Post near Pernau, where he expects farther Reinforcements from Finland.

Copenhagen, Sept. 11. N. S. The Swedish Fleet which lay near the Island of Wien, weigh'd Anchor the 8th Instant, and passing before the Danish Fleet which continues in our Road, sail'd with a fair Wind towards Carslesroone, where we suppose they may be arrived by this time; And the next day the English and Dutch Squadrons pass'd thro' the Sound, in order to their return home. Count Guldenlew, Admiral-General of this Kingdom, is dangerously ill. The Danish Forces that were in Holstein, are marching to their Quarters. Our Advices from Schonen say, the King of Sweden is gone to Christianstad, to review his Forces which are to be sent to Livonia.

Vienna, Sept. 8. The Emperor and Empress, with the Elector and Electress Palatine, and Prince Charles of Newbourg, came the 10th Instant from Newstad to the Palace at Favosita near this City, where the King and Queen of the Romans arriv'd the 4th. The day following their Electoral Highnesses received a Visit from the Arch-Duke Charles and the Arch-Duchess, who returned in the evening to Eberdorf. The King of the Romans intends to give a splendid Entertainment to morrow in his Palace at Shornborne to the Emperor and Empress, and to their Electoral Highnesses who in 4 or 5 days will leave this Place and return to Disseldorf; And about the same time the Imperial Court will remove to Eberdorf. A Match is concluded between Prince Charles of Newbourg, and the Daughter of Prince Lubomirsky, Great Marshal of the Crown of Poland. Count Stratman, who is gone with the Character of Envoy Extraordinary from the Emperor to the King of Poland, has Orders to use his Endeavours to accommodate the Differences between the King of Sweden and that Prince. Cardinal Lamberg is shortly expected here from his Bishoprick of Passau, to receive the Cap from the Emperor's Hands. The Council of War meet frequently to consider of the State of the Imperial Forces, and expect the return of Prince Eugene of Savoy, who is gone to review the Troops quartered in Hungary, that upon his Report they may give the necessary Directions for recruiting them, and remounting the Cavalry. Letters from Temeswaer say, the Imperial and Turkish Commissioners were shortly expected there from Croatia to continue their Conferences for regulating the Limits, and that the States of the Principality of Transylvania, which were assembled at Alba Julia, separated on the 20th past, but would meet again on the 8th Instant. The last Advices from Constantinople bring a Confirmation, that the Treaty for Prolongation of the Truce between the Czar of Muscovy and the Grand Signior is concluded, by which is left to the Czar the Possession of Azof, and all the other Places taken from the Turks by the Niepr. These Letters add, that the Muscovite Envoy insisted very much on a Free Trade and Navigation on the Black Sea, but could not obtain it.

Hamburgh, Sept. 14. Commissioners from the King of Denmark and the Duke of Holsheim-Gottorp are shortly to meet in this City, in pursuance of what is stipulated in the 11th Article of the Treaty of Trarvendale, to adjust several Matters which were left undetermined by the said Treaty. Count Guldensterne, the Swedish General, is gone from this Place to Staden to review part of the Swedish Forces that were in Holstein, who have repass'd the Elbe at Blaskeness, and are march'd to the Duchy of Bremen. The rest of the Swedish Troops are marching to Pommern, and there is a discourse that they intend to make an Irruption into the Electorate of Saxony, if the Elector of Brandenburgh can be prevailed with to allow them Passage through his Territories. The Duke of Holsheim is gone to Tonningen; 'tis said he intends shortly to return to Stockholm. The Count de Chamilly, Ambassador from France, will leave this Place in a day or two, and return to Copenhagen. The last Advices from Livonia give an Account, that the Saxon Forces before Riga meet with so many Difficulties, that 'tis believed they will be forced to quit their Design against the Town of Riga.
