SOUTH SUBURBAN GAS COMPANY.

NOTICE is hereby given that in accordance with a resolution passed by the stockholders of the Company at their annual meeting on the 24th February, 1944, and approved by the Ministry of Fuel and Power on the 3rd March, 1944, the following further variations have been made in the Scheme for the Election of Employee Directors:—

(1) The following words shall be added at the end of Section 2:—

"during the time that the provisions of such Section are in force".

(2) The following words shall be added at the beginning of Section 4:—

"The provisions of this Section shall come into force immediately after the cessation of the emergency that was the occasion of the passing of the Emergency Powers (Defence) Act, 1939".

(3) The following words shall be added at the beginning of Section 8:—

"(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-section (2) of this Section".

(4) The following words shall be added at the end of Section 8:—

"(2) The Directors of the Company may from time to time make such special arrangements as they may think fit for obtaining and recording the votes of employees temporarily absent from the service of the Company while serving with the Forces of the Crown or performing work of National importance to which they have been directed by competent authority".

(5) Sections 9, 10 and 10a shall be deleted and the following sections inserted in place thereof:—

"9. After the 31st day of March, 1944, provided the Co-partnership Committee shall have so requested, three Employees' Directors shall be elected, each at a separate election and on a separate date to be fixed by the Directors of the Company. The first of such elections shall be held as soon as conveniently may be after the said 31st day of March. The second and third elections shall be held on such respective dates as shall not be earlier than the date on which the Employees' Director elected at the immediately preceding election is declared to be elected. At each election the Employees' Director then longest in office shall retire but shall, if duly qualified, be eligible for re-election.

10. (1) On the 30th day of November next following the date on which the Employees' Director elected at the last of the elections mentioned in the last preceding Section is declared to be elected, but not before the 30th day of November, 1945, and thereafter on the 30th day of November in each year the Employees' Director then the longest in office since his last election shall retire but shall, if duly qualified, be eligible for re-election.

(2) On the 31st day of October next following the date on which the Employees' Director elected at the last of the elections mentioned in the last preceding Section is declared to be elected, and thereafter on the 31st day of October in each year an Employees' Director shall be elected to fill the vacancy to be created by the Employees' Director retiring on the immediately succeeding 30th day of November. Provided that if the said 31st day of October falls on a Sunday the Employee Director
