

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Monday, May 17. to Thursday, May 20. 1669.

Tarmouth, May 17.

Yesterday by contrary winds put into this Haven one of His Royal Highnesses Pleasure-Boats; Captain Read Commander; having on board the Countess of Carlisle bound for Stockholm. This Afternoon sailed hence two Vessels of this Town with piece Goods for Rotterdam.

Rome, May, 4. On Sunday last was celebrated with extraordinary Ceremony and Solemnity, the Canonization of the two new Saints, viz. Peter de A'vantara, and Mary Magdalen de Parzi, in order whereunto, the Pope met in the Chappel of Sixtus the 4th, with all the Princes, Cardinals, Arch-bishops, Prelats, the servants of his household, and all the Clergy, Secular and Regular, who in their habits of Ceremony, and Tapers in their hands, went in a solemn Order and procession from thence to St. Peters Church, which was extraordinarily beautified and adorned for that Ceremony, in which procession were carried two Glorious Standards, on which were lively drawn the Pictures of these two Saints. The Ceremonies being ended, and their Canonization solemnly pronounced, the Quire began the Tu Deum, which was answered without by the sounding of Trumpets and beat of Drums; and the discharge of several Chambers and all the Guns about the Town and Castle of St. Angelo, with the Ringing of Bells and all other Expressions of Joy, the usual attendants of these Extraordinary Ceremonies.

Several Complaints have been made to His Holiness of the great increase of Janitisme in several of the Provinces of France; to the prejudice of this Church, which the Pope is taking into his consideration.

Genova, May 7 This Republick having information that Father Nishard the Inquisitor-General of Spain was gone from Provence, and was with two Chaloups put to sea intending for this place, immediately ordered a Gally to be sent out to attend his arrival at Monaco, ordering the Captain to defray all his expences by the way: upon his arrival here he has been complimented in the name of the Senate; but appears incognito, and refusing the Pallace designed for his entertainment, has taken up his Longing amongst the Jesuits.

'Tis said that the Duke de St. Germain Viceroy of Sardinia, is lately dead, and that several of the Nobility there are got into Arms, but with what intentions is not yet discovered.

Venice, May 10 Our late advices from Zante assure us, that the Turks having made three furious assaults upon the Town of Candia, were in all of them beaten off by the great valour and courage of the Defendants, in which the loss of the Turks could not be computed less, then of 6000 men; that the Visier after so many losses and discouragements has not given over his hopes that he shall yet at the last make himself Master of the place, he has therefore ordered all the labourers about his Camp to be again employed in raising a new Mount and Battery in the place of that which was lately blown up by the besieged, and is so confidently persuaded of the strength of his Line, that he ordered the Chevalier Aloiso Molino the Venetian Minister, to be sent for from Canea, to whom he assigned the best Quarter in the Camp, entertaining him with much civility; shewing him all his Works, and afterwards sent him back again into Canea; in the mean time he is much concerned at the long delays of the Grand Segnior in giving him the assistance he has so long and often pressed for, and has sent fresh Letters to him to let him know, that unless he speedily supply him with such considerable numbers of men and other necessaries as he has formerly demanded, he shall not be able to make good his promise of winning the Town within the time prefixed by him.

The same Letters farther inform us, that the Visier has for the supply of his Army left the Town of Canea very thinly manned and ill furnisht with necessaries; the whole Garrison not exceeding Five hundred men, which information the Senate has thought fit to communicate by a Courier Extraordinary to His most Christian Majesty; with other Letters to their Ambassador at Paris to press that Court to hasten away the succours intended for their assistance.

We are lately assured that his Electoral Highness of Brandenburg has shown his readiness to joyn his assistance with other Princes against the Common Enemy; and has designed 2000 men for that service which are already upon their march.

The Senate being informed that several frauds or neglects have been observed in the provisions which they have ordered to be made for their Convoys designed for Candia, and particularly, that several pieces of Cannon sent by the last Convoy were found to be cracked and useles; and the other provisions not so great as was ordered: have chosen three persons of known integrity, and impowred them to take a view of all such provisions as shall for the future be sent for Candia.

Vienna, May 11. The 7th instant, the Capigy Bassa; an Envoye from the Grand Segnior took his leave of the Count de Montecuculi President of the Council of War, and yesterday departed hence by water on his return home, having been treated here to his satisfaction, and dismissed with the usual presents of Plate and Scarlet for himself and others of his Train. Here is lately arrived a Chiaus from Hungary with several fresh complaints against the Hussars.

By Letters from Monsieur Casa nova His Imperial Majesties Resident in Turkey, we are informed, that the Grand Segnior has ordered an Army of about 100 thousand men to be drawn to their Rendezvous upon the Danube, the greatest part of the said force, being thought to be intended to march into Dalmatia.

From Hungary we are informed that the Town of Offen has been lately ruined and almost wholly destroyed by fire, with all their Magazines of Stores and Ammunition. We have great hopes that the Emperours Commissioners at Epheries may so well acquit themselves of their Negotiation there, as to put an end to all differences and disputes with the people of Upper Hungary; and to satisfy them in all their pretensions. The Emperour has ordered the Castle of Neutra to be well fortified, and Garrison'd for the security of those parts.

The Trade of the Levant-Company is much augmented, every Month four or 5 ships sailing upon their account; laden with Merchandises for Turkey, the said Company expect daily the arrival of several Boats richly laden at Belgrade, with 10000 Oxen which they have bought in Turkey.

The Emperour in a farther compliance with the Popes desire for the assistance of the Venetians; has granted liberty for the raising of three Regiments more in his hereditary Countreys for that service.

Bruges, May 14 The Constable of Castille on Monday last caused an Order to be issued out, forbidding any Officers or soldiers to appear at the Court to demand Audience from him; and accordingly the Adjutants of the Court are commanded to attend at the Antichamber of his Pallace, to commit all such private soldiers to prison as they shall find making axing their addreſſes contrary to this Order, and to ſet a guard upon the offending Officers in their own Lodgings; expreſly prohibiting all Solicitors or other Agents of the Court to preſent any petition from them: but upon all Grievances or other occaſions which ſhall require it, the Infantry are to make their Addreſſes to the Count de Marcin, and the Cavalry to the Prince de Ligne.

On Sunday laſt we had news that about 15 thouſand French were lately entered into Picardy, intending to march forwards towards their late new Conqueſts. Their fortifications are every where very conſiderably advanced, and particularly the Cittadelle at Tournay will in leſs than three Months be in a good poſture of defence. The Marquiſ de Louvois arrived at Tournay the 21th inſtant, and from thence intends for Lille, from whence he paſſes on to take a View of all the late Conqueſts. At Douay were caſt this laſt week 25 pieces of Cannon.

The Duke d'Acroſhos has by his Letters lately informed the Conſtable of Caſtile, that the French Garrifons of Aethand Tournay have forbidden the Countrey Villages about Conde to pay any Taxes or Gabels to His Catholick Majeſty.

'Tis ſaid the Conſtable of Caſtile has alſo deſired, and obtained leave from the Queen Regent of Spain to retire himſelf from the Government of theſe Countreys; but as yet 'tis not known who may ſucceed him in this Charge.

On Friday laſt the Commons met in the uſual place for their Aſſembly, to conſider of the Impoſts required, but came not to any reſolution. On Sunday the States of Brabant aſſembled in the Town-Houſe, to conſult of the beſt method and means of ſatisfying the Commons, and obtaining from them ſuch things as have been required of them. The next day the Commons being again aſſembled, a Demand was made of 50 thouſand Florins payable to the Conſtable of Caſtile, to which they returned for anſwer, that they well underſtood not the title the Conſtable had to it; but that the Demand ought to have been made in the Name of His Catholick Majeſty.

Monſieur de Bergeick being returned to Lille, the Sieur Houines another of our Commiſſioners employed there to conſult about the limits, returned hither by the Conſtable's permiſſion for the ſettlement and ordering of his private affairs and concernment.

The laſt Courier from Spain arriving without diſturbance by the way of France, informs us, that the deſign of riſing a new Regiment of Guards for the defence of the Kings Perſon, has been much oppoſed by ſeveral of the Grands, and their eſtabliſhment (for that reaſon) as yet ſuſpended. That the Queen has lately nominated Don Paul Paradis, Don Louis Ferrer, and Don Franceſco de Guſman to be members of the Council of War, to which ſhe intends to adde ſeveral others; and that Don Juan having for ſome days viſited the Abbey of St. Bartholomew de Lupiana, is returned again to Guadalaxara, from whence he has complemented their Majeſties upon the late Feſtival.

'Tis alſo ſaid, that the Council appointed for the redreſs of the peoples Grievances, have made ſeveral Addreſſes to the Queen upon that ſubject, and that on the 3d inſtant was to be publiſhed an Ediſt for reformation of the Fees of Officers, and 'twas believed another would ſpeedily follow for the taking off part of the Subſidies and Tributes impoſed on the people.

Hague, May 24. The apprehenſions we have of the intentions of the Biſhop of Munſter, whoſe Garrifons are more then uſually filled with ſoldiers, gives the States an occaſion to have an Eye to his motion, and a good Guard upon the frontiers. 'Tis alſo ſaid that the Marquis of Brandenburg has been moved to revive his pretenſions to Weſel and ſome other places long poſſeſſed by us. It is therefore thought convenient to make ſome addition to the forces already on foot, by admitting 25 men to every Company.

The Heer Heiniſius, formerly deſigned to be ſent into Muſcovy to mediate, together with the Envoye from His Majeſty of Great Brittain, and interpoſe their good Offices for the compoſure of all differences between Sweden and Muſcovy, is countermanded, and ſome other will be ſpeedily named for the employment.

Paris, May 25. Letters from Thoulon inform us of the arrival there of the Duke de Navailles, who was ready with the Duke de Beaufort to embark themſelves upon the Fleet upon His Majeſties firſt Orders, all their forces being in readineſs, as are alſo the ſhips, to the number of 21, deſigned for that Expedition. The Gallies are already arrived there from Marſeilles, among whom are three Gallions, to ſupply the room of ſo many Gallies, which were left behind for want of ſlaves to manage the Oars. About the end of this month they may begin their Voyage.

The 17th inſtant their Majeſties with the Duke d'Enguyen and other perſons of the Court, went in a Galley followed by a great number of Boats towards the Camp or Fort of St. Sebaſtien about two leagues diſtant from St. Germain, from whence they were ſaluted with ſeveral Volleys of Cannon and Muſquets. The 20th inſtant their Majeſties came again to view the Camp, where the King ordered all the forces to be drawn up in Battaille and exerciſed.

The 19th the Baron de Cruiffhaudem appeared before His Majeſty to juſtifie himſelf from the imputation of which he ſtood charged or ſuſpected by his Enemies of giving advices to the Spaniſh Ambaſſadour prejudicial to the intereſt of this Crown; of which His Majeſty was ſoon inclined to acquit him. He is ſince returned with ſatisfaction to Flananders in company with the Sieur Talon the Intendant of Oudenard.

Monſieur de la Haye our Ambaſſadour in the Ottoman Court, has by his Letters of the 25th paſt informed the Court, that the Grand Segnior had given him his laſt Audience, with free liberty to return home; for which he is furniſhed with all neceſſary Paſs-Poſts, and has been heard with much favour in all his Demands: that he was then in readineſs to return from Lariffa to Conſtantinople, where he intended to embark himſelf and his Family on board the French Men of War which there attend for his Transportation, under the Command of the Sieur de Almeras.

Some few Horſe employ'd for that purpoſe to wait between Franche Comte and the Swiſs Cantons of Borne ſeiſed on a French man, called Monſieur le Roux, ſuſpected to have been active in carrying on the Spaniſh intereſt amongſt the Cantons, whom yeſterday they brought to this City, and ſecured him in the Baſtille, which is ſuſpected by the Cantons; in the mean time the Count de Grammont is there preſſing them to compleat the Levies, to which he pleads they are obliged by the Treaty of 1666, and for which he has advanced a conſiderable ſumme of Moneys, with a promiſe of more aſſoon as they have made any advance into that work.

A Courier lately arriving here from Warſaw (from whence he departed the 5th inſtant) informs us that the Diet in order to the Election began the 2 inſtant, but that the Miniſters of the Duke of Neuburg had rendered the Biſhop of Feſiers incapable of giving the Duke their Maſter the aſſiſtance he intended in preferring his intereſt and pretenſions in the Election; that the Prince of Lorrain's party daily increaſed as did his hopes to prevail in the ſaid Election, and that his Envoy had demanded the precedence of the Envoyes from Brandenburg and Neuburg, which was not then determined.

His Majeſty has ordered 10 men to be added to every company of Foot in all his Regiments. The Governour of this City has lately ordered the raiſing of men to be ſent to the Camp near St. Germain, offering a piſtol to each man for advance, to new cloath them, to ſecure them 10 ſolz a day for their pay, and aſſuring them they ſhall have leave to quit the ſervice at the end of this Campaigne.

The Members of Parliament went yeſterday in a body to St. Germain, to preſent their Remonſtrances (or Supplications, as the King is pleaſed to have them called) againſt the Ediſt paſſed in pt judice of their priviledges.

London, May 19. This morning His Royal Highneſs was preſent at Hyde park, where were drawn out ſeveral Companies of His Majeſties Regiment of Guards, with two Troops of the Horſe-Guards, whom His ſaid Royal Highneſs was pleaſed there to exerciſe.