Frankfort, Jan. 23. The Levies are continued in these Parts, for the Service of the Emperor, and other Princes of Germany. The Imperial Commissioners buy up a great quantity of Provisions to furnish the Magazines of Brisac, Philipsburgh, Friturbg, and the Fort of Kiel. The Count of Westheim, Envoy from the Emperor, is gone from hence to Wurtzburgh, to confer with the Bishop of that Place; after which he is to call upon several other Princes of the Circle of Franconia. The Sieur d'Abberville, Envoy from France, passed through this Place yesterday going to the Court of Hesse-Cassel. The French in Alsace continue to raise Men for the recruiting and augmenting of their Troops, and to fill their Magazines in those Parts. The States of Lower Austria continue assembled, and have under Consideration the raising the Supplies demanded by the Emperor. Several Persons of Quality offer to raise Regiments for the Emperor at their own Expence; and the Elector Palatine, the Bishop of Wurtzburgh, and other Princes of Germany, have promised to send Troops into the Emperor's Service.
