

making an alteration in the provisions of the Order in Council of His late Majesty King George the Fifth made on the 2nd day of May 1925, and published in the London Gazette on the 5th day of that month for uniting the benefices of Barsham and Shipmeadow in the county of Suffolk and the diocese of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich:

" Supplementary Scheme

" Whereas by Clause 3 of the said Order of His said late Majesty in Council it was directed that upon the union of the said benefices taking effect the incumbent of the united benefice should obtain the services of a lay reader or occasional clerical assistance and that a portion of the endowments of the united benefice should be charged with a sum of £100 per annum as a fund to meet the expenses of providing such services or assistance:

" And whereas the union of the said benefices took effect on the 6th day of January, 1944:

" And whereas it has been represented to us and we are satisfied that since the making of the said Order of His said late Majesty in Council the circumstances of the said benefices have so changed as to render the provision of such services or assistance no longer necessary or warrantable:

" Now therefore we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of Saint Edmundsbury and Ipswich (in witness whereof he has signed this Scheme) do humbly recommend and propose to Your Majesty in Council that the said Order of His said late Majesty in Council shall be altered by the rescission, with effect from the 6th day of January 1944, of the directions contained in Clause 3 thereof."

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Supplementary Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Supplementary Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Supplementary Scheme and to Order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of St. Edmundsbury and Ipswich.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 5th day of October, 1944, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 5th and 6th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 108, and of the Act of the 21st and 22nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 57, which Acts are known as 'The Ecclesiastical Leasing Acts,' and of the Ecclesiastical Commissioners (Powers) Measure, 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for the appropriation to our common fund of certain endowments of the benefice of Harrow on the Hill in the county of Middlesex and diocese of London:

" Whereas under the authority of the said Acts the annual value of the said benefice has been improved by virtue of certain sales of glebe lands formerly belonging to the said benefice and now exceeds £2,200 as computed by us:

" And whereas the endowments of the said benefice include a sum of £20,000  $\frac{1}{4}$  per cent. Consolidated Stock held by us subject to the provisions contained in the said Acts and Measure:

" And whereas upon the resignation of the Reverend Edgar Stogdon, the late Incumbent, a charge of £500 per annum by way of pension in his favour was placed upon the revenues of the said benefice:

" Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the date of the cessation of the said pension the aforesaid sum of £20,000  $\frac{1}{4}$  per cent. Consolidated Stock or the securities or investments on that date representing the same shall cease to be held by us for the benefit of the incumbent of the said benefice and shall be held by us for the benefit of our common fund."

And whereas the Notice of the foregoing Scheme, which is required by the hereinbefore mentioned Acts, has been given by the said Commissioners to the patron of the said benefice of Harrow on the Hill:

And whereas such patron has offered an objection to the said Scheme:

And whereas notwithstanding such objection the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

PRESENT

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 5th day of October, 1944 in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice of East Langdon in the diocese of Canterbury for the patronage of the benefice of Waldershare with Coldred in the same diocese:

" Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of East Langdon is vested in the Right Honourable Frederick George, Earl of Guilford:

" And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Waldershare with Coldred is vested in the Archbishop of Canterbury for the time being:

" And whereas the said Frederick George, Earl of Guilford and the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, now Archbishop of Canterbury, have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices may be rearranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

" And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed:

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Frederick George, Earl of Guilford, and of the said William, Archbishop of Canterbury, acting as such Archbishop (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme), We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of East Langdon shall be transferred to the said William, Archbishop of Canterbury and his successors in the same Archbishopric and shall thenceforth be absolutely vested in and shall from time to time be exercised by the said William, Archbishop of Canterbury, and his successors in the same Archbishopric for ever and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Waldershare with Coldred shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be transferred to the said Frederick George, Earl of Guilford, and his
