At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October, 1944.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 5th day of October, 1944, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Lapford in the county of Devon and in the diocese of Exeter:

"Whereas we are satisfied that Arthur Leonard William Vicars Miles of Commonmoor Cottage, Burley, Ringwood, in the county of Southampton, a Captain in Your Majesty's Army, M.C., is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Arthur Leonard William Vicars Miles desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Exeter for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Exeter (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Lapford shall be transferred to the said Charles, Bishop of Exeter, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Exeter for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 27th day of October, 1944.

PRESENT.

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 5th day of October, 1944, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria; Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 17th and 18th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 84, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for apportioning the income of the benefice of Uplowman, in the county of Devon and the diocese of Exeter, between that benefice and the benefice of Totnes in the same county and diocese:

"Whereas the patronage of each of the said benefices is vested in the Bishop of Exeter for the time being:

"And whereas we are of opinion that additional provision should be made for the cure of souls within the parish of the said benefice of Totnes by means of that apportionment of the income of the said benefice of Uplowman, which is hereinafter recommended and proposed, and that the said benefice of Uplowman will thereafter still be sufficiently endowed:

"And whereas the said benefice of Uplowman is now vacant:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Honourable and Most Reverend William, Archbishop of Canterbury, as Archbishop of the Province within which the said two benefices are situate and with the consent of the Right Reverend Charles, Bishop of Exeter, as such bishop and also as the patron in right of his See of the said two benefices (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme) We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme a sum of £2,000 £4 per cent. Funding Stock 1960-90 now held by us in trust for the said benefice of Uplowman shall cease to form part of the endowments of that benefice and shall be held by us in trust for and as part of the endowments of the said benefice of Totnes."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Exeter.
