Provided that—

(i) U.N.R.R.A. may waive any privilege; and

(ii) this privilege shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

Article 8. This Order may be cited as "the Diplomatic Privileges (U.N.R.R.A.) Order in Council, 1945". It shall enter into force as from this day's date.

And the Right Honourable Robert Anthony Eden, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions herein.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of January, 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section 1 of the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Act, 1944, 7 & 8 Geo. VI, Ch. 44 (hereinafter referred to as the Act) it is enacted that the provisions of that Section shall apply to any organisation declared by Order in Council to be an organisation of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government or Governments of one or more foreign sovereign powers are members and that His Majesty may, by Order in Council, provide that any such organisation shall, to the extent specified in the Order, have the immunities and privileges set out in Part I of the Schedule to the Act and confer upon representatives of member Governments on the Governing Body or any Committee of the Organisation, and upon officers and servants of the Organisation, the immunities and privileges set out in Parts II or III of the said Schedule to the extent specified in the Order;

Now therefore His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the aforesaid Act or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased by and with the advice of His Privy Council to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

PART I.

Article 1.—The United Nations Information Organisation (hereinafter referred to as U.N.I.O.) and the Intergovernmental Committee for Refugees (hereinafter referred to as the Refugees Committee) are organisations of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Governments of foreign sovereign powers are members.

Article 2.—U.N.I.O. and the Refugees Committee shall have the immunities and privileges set out in Part I of the Schedule to the Act and the legal capacities of a body corporate.

Article 3.—One representative of each member Government on the Council of U.N.I.O. and the Refugees Committee and one such representative on the Executive Committee of the Refugees Committee, not being in any case a British subject shall save to the extent to which in any case the Government of any such representative may see fit to waive any immunity or privilege and without prejudice to any immunities and privileges which any such person may be entitled to claim by virtue of any other office which he may from time to time hold, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II of the Schedule to the Act for the period for which his name appears as a person so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the Act.

Article 4.—Officers of U.N.I.O. not being British subjects and holding the offices of Secretary-General or Deputy Secretary-General and not exceeding at any one time two in number and officers of the Refugees Committee, not being British subjects and holding the offices of Director or Vice-Director and not exceeding at any one time two in number, shall, for the period for which their names appear as persons so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the Act, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II of the Schedule to the Act save to the extent that U.N.I.O. (or the Refugees Committee as the case may be) may in any case waive any of the said immunities or privileges.

Article 5.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 and, if they are nationals or citizens of, or belong to, any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom, those specified in paragraph 2 (a) of Part III of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i) in the case of persons referred to in subparagraph (a) of paragraph (2) of this Article, the government appointing such representatives may waive any immunity or privilege;

(ii) in the case of persons referred to in subparagraph (b) of paragraph (2) of this Article U.N.I.O. (or the Refugees Committee as the case may be) may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(iii) the exemption or relief from taxes and rates specified in the said paragraph 2 (a) of Part III of the Schedule, shall not extend to any person whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies to—

(a) British subjects who are the representatives of a member government on the Council of U.N.I.O. or on the Refugees Committee or on the Executive committee of the Refugees Committee; and
