

(b) British subjects who hold any of the offices in U.N.I.O. or in the Refugees Committee, referred to in Article 4 hereof.

Article 6.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 (b) of Part III of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i) U.N.I.O. (or the Refugees Committee as the case may be), may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(ii) the exemption from income tax specified in the said paragraph 2 (b) of Part III of the Schedule shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies to the following officers of U.N.I.O., namely all Directors of Divisions, and to the following officers of the Refugees Committee namely all Assistant Directors, the Secretary and the Treasurer.

Article 7.—All officers of U.N.I.O. and the Refugees Committee other than those referred to in Articles 4, 5 and 6 above shall have the exemption from income tax specified in paragraph 2 (b) of Part III of the Schedule to the Act.

Provided that—

(i) U.N.I.O. (or the Refugees Committee as the case may be) may waive any exemption; and

(ii) this exemption shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

PART II.

Article 8.—The European Advisory Commission (hereafter referred to as the E.A.C.) is an organisation of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Governments of foreign sovereign powers are members.

Article 9.—The E.A.C. shall have the immunities and privileges set out in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of Part I of the Schedule to the Act.

Article 10.—One representative of each member Government on the E.A.C., not being a British subject, shall, save to the extent to which in any case the Government of any such representative may see fit to waive any immunity or privilege and without prejudice to any immunities and privileges which any such person may be entitled to claim by virtue of any other office which he may from time to time hold, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II of the Schedule to the Act for the period for which his name appears as a person so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section 3 of Section 1 of the Act.

Article 11.—Officers of the E.A.C. not being British subjects and holding the offices of Secretary-General or Secretary, and not exceeding at any one time six in number, shall, for the period for which their names appear as persons so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section 1 of the Act, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II of the Schedule to the Act save to the extent that the E.A.C. may in any case waive any of the said immunities or privileges.

Article 12.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 of Part III of the Schedule to the Act:—

Provided that—

(i) in the case of persons referred to in subparagraph (a) of paragraph (2) of this Article, the Government appointing such representatives may waive any immunity or privilege.

(ii) in the case of persons referred to in subparagraph (b) of paragraph (2) of this Article, the E.A.C. may waive any immunity or privilege.

(2) This Article applies to—

(a) British subjects who are the representatives of a member Government on the E.A.C.; and

(b) British subjects who hold any of the offices in the E.A.C. referred to in Article 11 hereof.

Article 13.—All officers of the E.A.C. other than those referred to in Articles 11 and 12 above shall have the exemption from Income Tax specified in paragraph 2 (b) of Part III of the Schedule to the Act.

Provided that—

(i) the E.A.C. may waive any exemptions; and
(ii) this exemption shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

PART III.

Article 14.—This Order may be cited as "the Diplomatic Privileges (U.N.I.O., the Refugees Committee and E.A.C.) Order in Council, 1945". It shall enter into force as from this day's date.

And the Right Honourable Robert Anthony Eden, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs is to give the necessary directions herein.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

11

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of January, 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of January, 1945, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Walesby in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Reverend Frank Russell, Bishop of Southwell, the Venerable John Percy Hales, of Hill House, Southwell, aforesaid, Archdeacon of Newark, and John Baker, of Ollerton House, Ollerton, in the said county of Nottingham, Esquire, are the patrons or persons entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Frank Russell, Bishop of Southwell, John Percy Hales and John Baker desire to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Southwell Diocesan Board of Patronage and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the said Southwell Diocesan Board of Patronage (in testimony whereof they have executed this Scheme) and of the said Frank Russell, Bishop of Southwell, as the Bishop of the diocese within which the said benefice is situate (testified as aforesaid) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Walesby shall be transferred to the said Southwell Diocesan Board of Patronage and their successors and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the said Board and by their successors for ever."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwell.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.
