

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of January, 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of January, 1945, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 16th and 17th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 50, and of the Act of the 23rd and 24th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 124, have prepared, and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council, the following Scheme for effecting an exchange of the patronage of the benefice of Bondleigh with Brushford in the diocese of Exeter for the patronage of the benefice of Stoke Rivers in the said diocese:

"Whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bondleigh with Brushford is vested in the Exeter Diocesan Board of Patronage (hereinafter called 'the said Board of Patronage'):

"And whereas the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Stoke Rivers is vested in the Dean and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of St. Peter in Exeter (hereinafter called 'the said Dean and Chapter'):

"And whereas the said Board of Patronage and the said Dean and Chapter have respectively signified to us their desire that the patronage of the said two benefices may be re-arranged by way of exchange in the manner which is hereinafter recommended and proposed:

"And whereas we have made due inquiry and calculation as to the circumstances and relative value of the said two benefices and of the patronage thereof respectively and we do hereby certify to Your Majesty in Council that the circumstances and present values of the said two benefices are as set forth in the Schedule hereunto annexed:

"Now, therefore, with the consents of the said Board of Patronage and of the said Dean and Chapter (in testimony whereof they have respectively executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Bondleigh with Brushford shall be transferred to the said Dean and Chapter and their successors and shall thenceforth be absolutely vested in and shall from time to time be exercised by the said Dean and Chapter and their successors for ever and that in exchange for the same the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice of Stoke Rivers shall in like manner and upon and from the same date be transferred to the said Board of Patronage and shall thenceforth be absolutely vested in and shall from time to time be exercised by the said Board of Patronage and their successors for ever."

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 24th day of January, 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 11th day of January, 1945, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the Church and Cure (hereinafter called 'the said Benefice') of Bolsover, in the County and Diocese of Derby:

"Whereas we are satisfied that the Most Noble William Arthur Henry, Duke of Portland, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said Benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said William Arthur Henry, Duke of Portland, desires to transfer the Advowson of the said Benefice to the Bishop of Derby for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend John, Bishop of Derby (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole Advowson or perpetual right of Patronage of and presentation to the said Benefice of Bolsover shall be transferred to the said John, Bishop of Derby, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Derby for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.
