

Paris, June 25. N. S. The Letters from Venice of the 11th Instant, which came in yesterday by the ordinary Post, gave an Account, that the Imperial and French Armies faced each other upon the Banks of the River Adige, and that the Germans were advanced beyond Legnano; Two extraordinary Couriers are arrived from the Marshal de Catinat, the last with Letters of the 17th, which bring Advice, that the Imperialists had passed the Adige in two places near Rovigo and La Badia, and had encamped between this last mentioned Place and Sr. Lorenzo; and that it was uncertain whether Prince Eugene designed to march directly against Monsieur Catinat, or to endeavour to get to the Po before the French, and to pass that River at Ponte de Lago Ojuro, where there is a great Stone Bridge, after which the Germans would have an open Country. The German Forces were 26000 strong; some other Regiments were coming down from the Mountains, and a strong Detachment was left about Roveredo to observe Monsieur de Crenan, who is posted with 4000 French at Rivole. The French Army is in an ill Condition, which has occasioned the issuing of Orders for 8 Regiments of Foot, 5 of Horse, and 2 of Dragoons, to march from the French Comte to Italy by the way of Provence, besides the Detachment of 11000 Men mentioned in our last. The Marshal de Villeroi is gone to Germany, to take upon him the Command of the French Forces on the Rhine, and such Officers of the Troops in Flanders as are still here have Orders to repair forthwith to their Commands. The King has created two new Officers, by the name of Directors of the Finances, before whom the four Intendants General are to lay all their Accounts; These Employments are already bought by Messieurs d'Armonville, and Rouille de Coudray, at the rate of 80000 Livres each, and they will be worth to them 6000 Livres a year; Monsieur le Pelletier, the eldest of the said four Intendants, has thereupon desired leave to resign his place to his Son. The King has appointed Monsieur d'Oury, who for several years has been concerned in the Management of his Revenues, to go to Madrid, to put those of the King of Spain into a better Method. The Count de Couvonges, Envoy Extraordinary from the Duke of Lorraine, had Publick Audience the 20th Instant of the King, to make the Compliment of Condolence upon the Death of the Duke of Orleans. The Parliament of Paris, the Chamber of Accounts, the Court of Aids, the Court of the Mint, the French Academy, and the Magistrates of this City, have been to wait upon the King, to express their Concern for the Loss of this Prince; and the like has been done by the General Assembly of the Clergy, the Cardinal of Noailles their President speaking for them. The 20th, a Letter was delivered from the King to the General Assembly, who thereupon resolved to grant a Subsidy of 4 Millions of Livres yearly. We have Advice, that the Peace between the Venicians and the Turks is confirmed.
