Milan, July 6. N. S.

i.E Prince of Vaudemont, our Governor, arrived the first Instant at Belinghera, where he caused an Oath of Allegiance to the present king of Spain to be administred to all the Principal Inhabitants, as he had done in several row he is expected here, to receive the Oath of the Magistrates of this City. Several French Regiments which took their Passing through the Duke of Savoy's Territoric, are come into the Milaneze, and are marching to join their Army. Three Regiments of Horse of the Duke of Savoy's Forces are also arrived, and march to Crestal.

Vaice, July 22. The Imperial Ambassador had Audence this week of the Senare, to acquaint them with the Driet of the French Forces at Carpi by the German; to which, Answer was returned from the Senare, Int they rejoiced with his Excellency for the good Conduit of Prince Engene, and good Fortune of the Imperial Forces, and wished them prosperous Success in all their other Deligns. Letters from Verona and from Politica of the 20th Instant give an Account, that the Freich Army commanded by Marshal Catinat had passed the Minio, broke down the Stone Bridge over that Riem, and encamped themselves in the Neighbourhood of Cast and Castissime, where they were Intrenching chimselves. The Germans were encamped at Villa Franca, and in all appearance would soon march to the Minio, and endeavour to pass that River; They had benefit joined by a Body of 6000 Men, who came by the way of Rivole. Letters from Rome of the 16th Liant say, the Pope received an Express 4 days before two Ferrara, with Advice, that the Imperial Troops were all marched our of his Territories. The French complain very much of Cardinal Asiali, and charge im with Partiality in surnishing the Imperialits with Positions. They write from Naples, that the Galleys of that Kingdom are ordered to sail to Nizza, to carry the Princess of Savoy to Barcelona.

Thay wise from Livonia, that the Saxon Forces continue his march with the best part of his Army with a big of the Czar's Forces, which are mostly Commanded by German Officers. The King of Sweden continuation attack the Saxons, and to retake Kockenbausen, is the other Places which they have possessed thems.

In fact, July 16. The King of Poland has for the the intensity of the Places which they have a state of the Circle of the Horse. The Negociation for a Peace between the Kings of Sweden and Poland, is carried on with great Application by the Emperor's Envoy, and other Foreign Ministers at this Court; and 'is said, that if the same succeeds, the King of Poland will send his Saxon Forces into the Emperor's Service. The Prince of Furssemberg, Governor of Saxony for the King of Poland, is upon his departure to Dressem.

Vienna, July 20. The Advices from Italy say, after the Deteat of the French at Carpi, Marshal Catinat sent two Trumpeters to the Imperial Army, to know what French Officers were Prisoners there, and that the French owned, that a Review of the Regiments that engaged in Action having been taken, 1700 Men were found wanting. The Detachment Commanded by Count Guttenfann, (except 300 Men whom he lest behind to guard the Pals of Rivule) had joined the Imperial Army, who were then 32000 strong. The new-raised Regiment of Horse of Longuevall, consisting of 1000 Men, is marching through Bohemia to join our Army in Italy, and will soon be followed by the Regiment of Hussin's commanded by Colonel Paul Diack. The Emperor has appointed the Bishop of Ranb to go to the Elector of Cologne, and General Schick to the Elector of Bruaria, to demand of them a positive Answer concerning the Measure's they intend to take, in case of a Rupture with France. Count Strantan's Secretary is come hither from Win-Jam, to receive surther Instructions about the Negociation which he is carrying on there by the Mediation of the Emperor, for Accommodating the Discrences between the Kings of Sweden and Poland. A Treaty was signed here the 16th Instant by the Ministers of the Emperor and the Bishop of Wurtzburgh, by which the said Bishop is to send 4000 Men into the Emperor's Service. Moniteur Urbigh, the Danish Envoy, is returned hither from Copenhagen, with the King of Demmark, concerning the 6000 Dane: now in Saxony who are to enter into the Emperor's Pay, and will be employed on the Rhime under the Command of Prince Lewis of Balan, in Conjunction with t
