Fra the Imperial Camp at Cissina de la Polvere, betwen Pei siera and Ponti, July 29. N.S.

THE 21st Instant, the Army being encamped between Visa Franca and Povijano, we had a confirmation, that the Enemy were posted on both sides the River Minero, and were contimiting as far as Peschiera. Some Deserters came arms, who assured us, that the Enemy daily expected the Senous, which are reported to consist of 25 Battains of the Action at Carpi having been very my pulty of plundering the Country, in imitation of Or Sidiers fince the Action at Carpi having been very end gulty of plundering the Country, in imitation of the Innit, imagining they were now in an Enemy's Cart, divers of them suffered exemplary Punishment in the sime. The 22-4, we foraged towards the Mannagard Prince Eugene sent out Lieutenant Field-marshal Carpaja and Maior-General Count Dietrichstein with motherle to cover the Foragers, but the Enemy gave remain disturbance; Adjutant-General Buron Charee was see might so Horse towards the Ministo to get Intelligent, and roused some of their advanced Guards; We malthy 10000 of their Succours were arrived in their get, and roused some of their advanced Guards; We get, and roused some of their advanced Guards; We mal this 5000 of their Succours were arrived in their clim The 23d, at the delire of Colonel Count Mercy, they of 150 Horse were given him, with whom he set cound the Enemy's Camp, but took no Prisoners, by all keeping close within their Lines. Adjustant-General Cha-mi, who was fent out for Intelliging, and, confirmed all this, brag hand it fees the Duke on Warleback; and added, batch Finero Army mar Geero had been teinforced with fread Butulions of Foot. Prince Engene and Prince Com-sent went out with a Detachment to view the Linemy's Cato 4: Gaing, and late Adjustic Conserval Chance as Vie-Em wert out with a Detachment to view the enemy so Gamat Gana, and left Adjutant General Charee at Value, with Orders to have a warchen. Eye upon the Enemand give immediate notice it they made any motion. About 11 at night, the Army mirrhed in 3 Columns; The Left Wing took the way of View-France, St. Luica, it Salasae; The Right Wing marched to the left of life France by Mendagoy, Gafeula, St. Rocko de Polegola, Mondeg slia, Alacka, and Alla-Gerla; And before the Vanguard of both Wings marched a Squadron of Dragoons and 3 Companies of Granadiers, and each Column had 16 Gens with them; The reft of the Artillery with the Bigage made the 3d Column, and took their way to Summa Campagna. Sc. Georgio, Chiraldo, Allacka, and Alackiera. General Palfi with 1200 Horfe, had Orders not only to cover the march of the Army, but also to advance to the Enemy's Camp at Goito, and to alarm them, that in case the Enemy should have notice of our march, and should make any motion, he might give them a Diversion as long as possible; At the same time Adjutant-General Baron Riedt was ordered to lade upon Wagons divers Boats, and other Materials for Bridges, which were got together with great privacy at Gossingo, and to bring them by to at night to St. Leonce on the Minico; The Army muched all night, and our Vanguard arrived the 28th, by break of day, at St. Leonce. Prince Euzene was gone thither before, and Baron Riedt could not arrive there till 8 in the morning, and brought only Boats and Materials for one Bridge, which was presently begun and finished by noon. The Forces arrived there between 6 and 7 in the morning. As soon as the Bridge was ready, we began to pass over it, and before night all the Regiments were got on the other side. Every body believed that this day we should have been engaged, seeing this Bridge was made so near the Enemy, not being above 2 Leagues from their main Body, and we could not comprehend why they did not make use of the opportunity they had to render our Passage very difficult, it not wholly impossible; but they suffered us to pass without any hindrance. As soon as our Vanguard was over, Parties were fent up the Hills to observe the Country, who mer several of the Enemy scattered in the Fields, of whom some were kilthe Hills to observe the Country, who mer several of the Enemy scattered in the Fields, of whom some were killed, and 7 brought away Pris ners, with about 20 Horf's; General Palfs mer a Party of the Enemy on the other side site Aincio, killed several, and took 7 Prisoners, and 8 Horfes. Our Foot with several Pieces of Cannon posted themselves on a Hill near our Birge, and in the evening a Camp was marked out at this Place between Peschiera and Ponti, and the Army encamped in order of Battel. A Deserter came over from the Enemy, and said, That their Patrol brought Advice to the French Generals of our passing rhe Mincio, but they did not believe we could have a Bridge ready, or could pass sisson. The 29th, we rested to expect our Artillery and Bagage, and our Provision of Bread and Oats, and this whole cay the Februs's advanced Guards were not much above two Musker-shot distant from ours. Prince Eugene sent out Major-General Vaubonne with 500 Horse to artack the Enemy's advanced Guards, which he performed, and drove the Enemy to their the Hills to observe the Country, who mer several of the bonne with 500 Horie to artack the Enemy's advanced Guards, which he performed, and drove the Enemy to their very Camp. In this Action about 200 of the Enemy were killed, bendes a General Officer Brother to Count Melac, and fome other Officers, and about 50 Soldiers and 4 Officers were taken Prifoners. Adjurant-General Barcer, who is posted near Valleg o to observe the Enemy, has sent an Action, that this Action so alarmed them, that they all betook themselves to their Arms; and we wonder that they suffered their advanced Guards to be thus drove backs.
