

(ii) this privilege shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

Article 8. This Order may be cited as "The Diplomatic Privileges (the Transport Organisation Amendment) Order in Council, 1945." It shall enter into force as from this day's date.

Article 9. The Diplomatic Privileges (the Transport Organisation and War Crimes (omission) Order in Council, 1945 is repealed in so far as it applies to the Provisional Organisation for European Inland Transport.

And the Right Honourable Ernest Bevin, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions herein.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December, 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS by Section I of the Diplomatic Privileges (Extension) Act, 1944 (7 and 8 Geo. VI, Ch. 44), hereinafter referred to as the Act, it is enacted that the provisions of that Section shall apply to any organization declared by Order in Council to be an organization of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Government or Governments of one or more foreign sovereign powers are members and that His Majesty may by Order in Council provide that any such organization shall, to the extent specified in the Order, have the immunities and privileges set out in Part I of the Schedule to the Act, and confer upon officers and servants of the organization, the immunities and privileges set out in Parts II or III of the said Schedule to the extent specified in the Order:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by virtue and in exercise of the powers in this behalf by the aforesaid Act or otherwise in His Majesty vested, is pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to order and it is hereby ordered as follows:—

Article 1. The Preparatory Commission of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization specified in the Instrument establishing it, signed in London on the 16th November, 1945 (hereinafter referred to as the Preparatory Commission), is an organization of which His Majesty's Government in the United Kingdom and the Governments of foreign sovereign powers are members.

Article 2. The Preparatory Commission shall have the immunities and privileges set forth in Part I of the Schedule to the Act.

Article 3.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies, not being British subjects and not exceeding at any one time four in number, shall, for the period for which their names appear as persons so entitled on the list compiled by the Secretary of State in accordance with sub-section (3) of Section I of the Act, have all the immunities and privileges specified in Part II of the Schedule to the Act save to the extent that the Preparatory Commission waives any of the said immunities and privileges in any given case.

(2) The persons to whom this Article applies are the Executive Secretary and Deputy Executive Secretary of the Preparatory Commission and any other officer of the Preparatory Commission holding a rank equivalent to Deputy Executive Secretary.

Article 4.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 of Part III of the Schedule to the Act and, if they are nationals or citizens of, or belong to, any part of His Majesty's dominions outside the United Kingdom, those specified in paragraph 2 (a) thereof:

Provided that—

(i) in the case of persons referred to in paragraph (2) of this Article, the Preparatory Commission may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(ii) the exemption or relief from taxes and rates, specified in the said paragraph 2 (a) of Part III of the Schedule to the Act, shall not extend to any person whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies to British subjects who hold in the Preparatory Commission any of the offices referred to in Article 3 hereof.

Article 5.—(1) The persons to whom this Article applies shall have the immunities and privileges specified in paragraph 1 and paragraph 2 (b) of Part III of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i) the Preparatory Commission may waive any immunity or privilege; and

(ii) the exemption from income tax specified in the said paragraph 2 (b) of Part III of the Schedule shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

(2) This Article applies to all officers of the Preparatory Commission holding the rank of, or a rank equivalent to, Head, or Deputy or Assistant Head, of Department, Section or Division, or Principal or Assistant Principal Officer.

Article 6. All Officers of the Preparatory Commission, other than those referred to in Articles 3, 4 and 5 above, shall have the exemption from income tax specified in paragraph 2 (b) of Part III of the Schedule to the Act:

Provided that—

(i) the Preparatory Commission may waive any privilege; and

(ii) this privilege shall not extend to any British subject whose usual place of abode is in the United Kingdom.

Article 7. This Order may be cited as "The Diplomatic Privileges (Preparatory Commission of the United Nations Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization) Order in Council, 1945." It shall enter into force as from this day's date.

And the Right Honourable Ernest Bevin, His Majesty's Principal Secretary of State for Foreign Affairs, is to give the necessary directions herein.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 20th day of December, 1945.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 13th day of December, 1945, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Theydon Garnon, in the county of Essex and in the diocese of Chelmsford:

"Whereas we are satisfied that Sir Robert Henry Edward Abdy of 'Albysn', Romford, in the county of Essex, Baronet, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice:

"And whereas the said Robert Henry Edward Abdy desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Chelmsford for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Henry, Bishop of Chelmsford, (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme) we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Henry, Bishop of Chelmsford, and his successors in the same Bishopric, and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Chelmsford for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in
