THE Humble Address of the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council of the City of London, being sent to His Majesty by their Excellencies the Lords-Justices, His Majesty was very well pleased with this Expression of the Great Loyalty and Affection of the City of London, and did order, That their Excellencies should, as by His Majesty's special Direction, acquaint the Lord-Mayor, Aldermen, and Common-Council, with the great Satisfaction His Majesty was pleased to express upon the receiving of it; Which their Excellencies have accordingly signified to them by Sir John Houbton, Sir Richard Levett, Aldermen, and those of the Common-Council who were deputed to present the same to their Excellencies on the 30th past, and were sent for to attend their Excellencies yesterday for this purpose; And this day the Lord-Mayor summoned the Common-Council to meet, to communicate to them His Majesty's most Gracious Acceptance of their said Address.

The Earl of Manchester, His Majesty's late Ambassador Extraordinary in France, came to Town last Monday in the Evening, and waited upon their Excellencies the Lords-Justices the next Morning.

A very Loyal and Dutiful Address to His Majesty from the Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and other Gentlemen of the County of Wilts, was presented yesterday to their Excellencies the Lords-Justices.

The Justices of the Peace of the City and Liberty of Westminster attended their Excellencies with an Humble and Loyal Address to His Majesty.

A like Address to His Majesty from the Town and Port of Hastings, was presented to their Excellencies by John Pulteney Esq; one of their Representatives in Parliament.

As also an Address from the City of Lincoln, was presented to their Excellencies, by Henry Smith of the Inner-Temple, Esq.

And from the Town of Nottingham, was also presented to their Excellencies.

And from the Town and Borough of New-Windsor, was presented to their Excellencies, by William Peisly of the Middle-Temple, Esq; Recorder, and Thomas Rutter and John Clark, two of the Aldermen.

All which Addresses follow.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.
The Humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, Grand-Jury, and Gentlemen Assembled at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace at Marlborough, in the County of Wilts, the Seventh of October, Anno Dom. 1701.

Dread Sovereign,
Whereas we cannot but with the Utmost Abhorrence and Detestation, take notice of the great Indignity offer'd to Your Majesty, in Proclaiming a Pretended Prince of Wales King of Your Realms: We beg Leave upon this Occasion to repeat our Assurances of Fidelity to Your Majesty and Government.

And that we shall and will at all times exert our selves to the Utmost of our Powers, in the Support of the Alliances which are and shall be made by Your Majesty for the Preservation of Your Majesty's Rightful and Lawful Title to these Your Realms, and the Limitation of the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, as now by Law Established.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Justices of the Peace at the General Quarter-Sessions of the Peace holden for the City and Liberty of Westminster, in the County of Middlesex, this Eighth day of October, in the Thirteenth Year of Your Majesty's Reign; the Grand-Jury in open Court unanimously desiring to Concur and Joyn in the same.

Great Sir,

WE cannot but shew our Just Resentments and Detestations of the Perfidioussness of the French King, in Assuming to himself the Disposal of Your Majesty's Kingdoms to the Pretended Prince of Wales: And we humbly beg Leave to Assure Your Majesty, That we will Heartily and Unanimously at all Times, and upon all Occasions, Assist Your Majesty, in Asserting Your Undoubted Right and Title to the Imperial Crown of these Your Majesty's Kingdoms against the Pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Pretenders or Invaders of your Crown and Dignity; and also in the Defence of Your Sacred Person, whom GOD Preserve, and Grant a long and happy Reign over us.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Jurats, Minister, Gentlemen, and Commonalty, of Your Majesty's Town and Port of Hastings in the County of Suffex.

BEING Sensible (Dread Sovereign) how Gloriously Your Majesty rescued our Religion, Laws, and Liberties, from the manifest Violations of the late Reign, and how inviolable they have ever since been Preserved to us; we cannot without the highest Ingratitude, but express our Utmost Detestation of the French King's late Proceedings, in taking upon him to give the Title of King of England, Scotland, and Ireland to the Pretended Prince of Wales, in open breach of Your Majesty's most Undoubted Right and Title, and in defiance to our Laws for Settling a Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line.

We do verily believe, that the great Motive which induced him to it, was, the better to preserve, in his Interest, that Popish and Disaffected Party which has constantly endeavoured to Distress, and sometimes openly Attempted the Destruction of Your Majesty's Person and Government. And as that Monarch has by this Step plainly shewn his Intentions to Dethrone Your Majesty, in order to an Establishment of Popery and Arbitrary Power within Your Majesty's Kingdoms; so we must conclude he will attempt it when he shall think himself sufficiently Enabled by a firm Union of France and Spain.

Wherefore we do humbly crave Leave, with one Heart and Voice, to Assure Your Majesty, that to the Utmost of our Abilities we will firmly Support and Defend Your Majesty's Sacred Person and Government, and the Succession of the Imperial Crowns of these Realms in the Protestant Line, as by Law settled, against the Pretended Prince of Wales, his Adherents, and all other Your Majesty's Enemies, whether Foreign or Domestic, and Particularly that we, the Mayor, Jurats, and Commonalty, from time to time, as occasion shall require
