Whitehall, October 21.

THE following Addressees to His Majesty were this Day presented to their Excellencies the Lords-Justices.

This Address was presented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Berkeley, High-Steward of the City of Gloucester.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of Your City of Gloucester, in Common-Council Assembled.

Great Sir,

THE Glorious Things You have done for Us and our Posterity, Oblige us on all Occasions to express our Gratitude, and to Resist any Indignity offered to Your Sacred Person; and Particularly, that of the French King's giving the Titles of Your Kingdoms to the Pretended Prince of Wales. We therefore do, in all Sincerity and Reality imaginable, Assure Your Majesty, That we will, to the Utmost of our Power, Defend Your Majesty's Person and Royal Authority, against the French King and the Pretended Prince of Wales; and against all other Your Enemies whatsoever; and will Maintain the Succession of the Crown according to the several Acts of Parliament; and Pray for the Long Continuance of Your Majesty's Reign over us.

The following Address was presented by the Right Honourable the Lord Brooke.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesty's most Faithful and Obedient Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, and Burgeses, of Your Majesty's ancient Borough of Warwick; do, with the utmost Detestation, Resist the Insultance of that Power who hath of late assumed to himself the Right of Disposing Kingdoms, amongst others, these Your Majesty's of England, Scotland, and Ireland, by giving the Title thereof to the Pretended Prince of Wales, contrary to the known Laws of these Realms, the most Solemn Treaties, and his own Acknowledgments; thereby Invading Your Majesty's just and Rightful Title, Confirmed and Settled no less by Sanction of Laws, than the Affections of Your People.

We beg leave humbly to offer the Assurance of our Inviolable Fidelity and Affection to Your Sacred Person, Title, and Government; and to assure Your Majesty, We are, and ever shall be, ready to devote our selves and All that is dear to us in the Defence of the same, against all the Enemies of Your Crown and Dignity. In Testimony whereof, we have herewith affixed the Common Seal of the said Borough this 16th day of October, in the Thirteenth Year of Your Majesty's Reign.

The following Address was presented by Thomas Hopkins Esq; one of the Representatives in Parliament of the City of Coventry.

To the KING's Most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriffs, Gentlemen, Citizens, and Inhabitants, of Your Ancient City of Coventry.

May it please Your Majesty,

After that by a long Expensive and Bloody War, Your Majesty, satisfy by Your Arms and Unparalleled Courage and Conduct, had forced France to such a Peace as would not only Secure Your Kingdoms in their Liberties and Religion, but gave a Prospect of Happiness and Tranquility to all Your Neighbours and Allies: To our Amaze-ment we find, by the Death of the late King of Spain, all our Hopes frustrated, and our Dangers greater than ever, by the boundless Ambition of the French King; who has in effect United the Spanish Dominions to his own, and has seized on the Spanish Netherlands, the only Barrier betwixt France and a Nation so nearly Ally'd to us in Religion and Interest. And in hopes to make Your Majesty's Kingdoms as Dependant on him as the Spanish Dominions, has, contrary to his Treaties, Right of Nations, and our known Constitution, set up a Pretended Prince of Wales to oppose Your Majesty and Your Lawful Successors. But amidst all these impending Dangers, our Hopes and Confidence (next to Almighty GOD) is in Your Majesty; who in the Glorious Course of Your Life, has been the only Check to the vast Designs of that Ambitious King. 'Tis from Your Majesty we hope for our Security in all that is Dear to us, and 'tis from You the World expects the Powers of Europe should be reduced, and kept in a Due Balance. To the Accomplishing these Great Ends, we humbly beg Leave to Assure Your Majesty, that we shall cheerfully, and to the Utmost of our Power, join with the rest of Your Loyal Subjects, to Assist Your Majesty in all Your Great Undertakings, for the Peace and Security of Your Kingdoms, and Your Neighbours and Allies, against the Pretended Prince of Wales and all his Adherents. And that Your Majesty may have a Long and Prosperous Reign over us, are the Constant and most Heavily Prayers of Your Majesty's Most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address was presented by William Hilderston Esq; High-Sheriff of the County of Bedford.

May it please Your Most Excellent Majesty.

We Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Justices of the Peace, Deputy-Lieutenants, Grand-Jury, and High-Sheriff of the County of Bedford, at the General Quarter-Session of the Peace for the said County Assembled, the Eighth day of October, 1701. And others, Gentlemen and Freeholders of the said County of Bedford;

HAVING observed with a great Concern the Restless and Insatiable Ambition, and the Repeated Breaches of the Promises and Treaties of the French King, as in many other Instances, so in Asserting the Right of a Pretender to Your Majesty's Crown, contrary to a Solemn Treaty ratified by himself, and to the Settlement of the Succession by several Acts of Parliament of this Your Majesty's Kingdom; We do in all humility apply our selves to Your Majesty, declaring, That 'tis upon Your Royal Wisdom, Goodness, and Courage, next to our GOD, we depend in all Exigencies, and with Unfeigned Sincerity assure Your Majesty, that we will never be wanting with our Lives and Estates to support Your Majesty's Royal Person and Government, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, according to the said Acts, and in Defence of the Church of England, and the Liberties of this Kingdom.

The following Address was presented by William Furrer Esq;

May it please your Most Excellent Majesty.

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Recorder, Justices of the Peace, Aldermen, Burgeses, Common-Council-Men, Burgeses, and Freeman, and other Inhabitants of the Town of Bedford; Petition upon the just Growth of the French Power, by which the Extension of the said of Europe seems to be attempted; and considering how by a late Edition, in a very Particular and dangerous manner, the French King hath in a manner declared the English Nation his
