

The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Thursday October 23. to Monday October 27. 1701.

Chitshall, October 23.

THE following Addresses to His Majesty were this day presented to their Excellencies the Lords Justices.

The following Address was presented by the Right Honourable the Earl of Scarborough, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Durham.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Justices of the Peace, and Grand Jury, of and for the County Palatine of Durham, at their General Quarter Sessions, holden the 8th Day of October, in the 13th Year of Your Majesty's Reg.

Great Sir,

WE Your Majesty's most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being deeply sensible of the Great Justice and Integrity of our said Your Sacred Majesty, in the Pretence Prince of Wales to be proclaimed in the Imperial Seal of your Majesty's Kingdoms, contrary to Your Lawful and Rightful Title, as by Acts of Parliament, and the Faith of Solemn Treaties; Discreetly and unanimously declare, That we will, to the utmost of our Power, defend and maintain Your Majesty's Crown and Dignity against the French King, the Pretended Prince of Wales, and his Adherents, and all other Your Majesty's Enemies whatsoever.

The Colonels, and several other Gentlemen of the Lieutenantancy of London, attended their Excellencies with the Address which follows.

To the KING's most Excellent Majesty.

The Humble Address of the Lord Mayor, and the rest of Your Majesty's Commissioners of Lieutenancy for Your City of London.

Great Sir,

SINCE the Blessings that we and all Your Majesty's Subjects have so securely enjoyed, under the kind Influence of Your most Wise and Gracious Government, that we should be guilty of the heaviest Ingratitude, if we were not most sensibly touched with the least Assault upon the Honour of Your Majesty, Your Crown, and Dignity.

Our Indignation therefore cannot but be raised to the highest Pitch, upon the French King's pretending to Declare the Pretended Prince of Wales King of Your Realms, and Dominions, as if it were in his Power to dispose of these Kingdoms to whom Your Majesty hath the Only and Undoubted Right, and thereby to make Slaves of a People, who never can be such whilst they remain Your Majesty's Subjects.

And since Your Majesty hath honoured us by Your Commission, which leaves us to offer Your Majesty, That the Arms we have been graciously pleased to entrust in our hands, shall be heartily employed against the Enemies of Your Royal Person and Government, and the Injurers and Disturbers of the Peace of Your Kingdoms wherein (by the Blessing of God) we cannot but succeed, being Directed and Commanded by the Greatest of Generals, and the Best of Kings.

The following Address of the Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Freeholders, assembled at the General Quarter Sessions for the County of Essex, was presented by Samuel Wiseman Esq; Chairman of the said Sessions, and Sir Francis Mordaunt Bar, one of the Knights in Parliament for the said County.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the High Sheriff, Deputy Licutenants, Justices of the Peace, Grand Jury, and other Freeholders for the County of Essex, at the General Quarter Sessions of the Peace holden at Chelmsford the seventh day of October in the Thirteenth Year of the Reign of our Gracious Sovereign Lord William the Third, by the Grace of God over England, Scotland, France and Ireland, King, Defender of the Faith, &c. Anno Dom. 1701.

Great SIR,

WE Your Majesty's most dutiful and Loyal Subjects, being deeply concerned for the Honour of Your most Sacred Majesty, and the Prosperity of these Your Kingdoms, beg Leave humbly to represent to Your Majesty our just apprehensions of the imminent Dangers with which the present Posture of Affairs do so apparently threaten us.

The exorbitant Power of France, so formidable in the hands of a Prince whose insatiable Ambition has broke through the most solemn Oaths and Treaties, (which have been ever esteemed both by God and Man as the most Sacred Ties) regarding no Era but Interest, nor no Law but Force, hath long since weakned us.

But the accommodation Adjustions lately made, by the conjunction of the Power of Spain, and the Advances of so many Princes of Europe, with the Neutralities he hath obtained of others, hath so encreas'd our Fears, that we cannot remain any longer silent.

But more especially his acknowledging the pretended Prince of Wales, by giving him the Title of King of England, Scotland and Ireland, in Defence to Your Majesty's most just and lawful Title, and contrary to the late most solemn Treaty of Rylwick, raises our utmost Abhorrence and Indignation: And makes us take Leave to assure Your Majesty, That we are ready, with the greatest Obedience, Fidelity and Unity, to assist Your Majesty in the Execution of that just Rejoynment Your Majesty hath express'd of this Affair; and to support the Honour of Your Majesty's Government, to which we are so highly indebted for the present Enjoyment of our Religion, Laws and Liberties.

And as we assure Your Majesty, That from these sincere Resolutions no Difficulties shall remove, nor Dangers affright us, so we take this Occasion to return Your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for the Fatigues and Dangers to which You have so often expos'd Your Royal Person for our sakes. And to those we add our Prayers to Almighty GOD to continue Your Majesty long a Blessing to Your Subjects, a Stowge of Tyrants, and the Deliverer of Christendom.

The following Address was presented by Sir William St. Quintin Bar. one of the Representatives in Parliament of the Town of Kingston upon Hull.

To the King's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Mayor Elect, Recorder, Aldermen, Grand Jury and other Burgesses, Inhabitants of the Town and County of Kingston upon Hull, at a General Quarter Sessions of the Peace held for the said Town and County, on the Ninth Day of October, 1701. and in the Thirteenth Year of Your Majesty's most Gracious Reign.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE cannot without the greatest Abhorrence reflect upon the many Plots and Designs that have been formed against Your Majesty's Royal Person, Crown, and Government, which might have been of fatal Consequence to these Nations, had not the most faithful Providence of God detected and prevented them; which unspeakable Goodness and Mercy we hope will never be forgotten by any of Your Majesty's Loyal Subjects.

And forasmuch as by the French King's Proclamation of the pretended Prince of Wales, as King of these Your Majesty's Realms and Dominions, the same wicked Design

Gelderland, and the is to continue in of the French and are quartered at Le- are the 22d Instant, their March towards quarters. The Troops were encamped at thence to their forces commanded by Aix la Chapelle, are squadrons of Horse, or, ate to continue Richelle, under the general Mergulle; for bles are built there. s which were can- nese Provinces, are Friday came in here James Millison Ma- e Pearle, Abraham e from Stockholm; alk Master, bound ing to this Place.

d from Flanders of the Gazette, That A- ay's Coffee-house, Le- agreement lately made of E. W. Backwell, Esq; makers having reciev- nced, cannot attend present Term; it is nce will be concluded at Term, and no longer of sired to take notice.

salms of DAVID; and in large 8°, double small 12°. The Tern owners Company. Sold at ational Account of Religion. The 7th Ed- blished from the Author's r. Rev. Edward Stilling- er. Printed at the Uni- d by H. Mordock at the on.

aturday in November next, Heat upon Epsom Downs by any Horses that shall weight and an half; The Gallows not exceed- ways under that size to weight for inches, the ay, a 10 l. Plate, by 27 11 Stone weight; The be entred at Devereax Lincoln, a brown Mare chead, some grey Hair inside white, Straks of r side in her Girt place. Tho. Simpkins at the War- n, London, or Mr. Philip mshire, shall have a Ge-dm. Chapp of Old Le- Gelding about 15 hands, Leg behind bigger than un Nag about 14 hands, neck Lift down his Rump, 1 gives notice to the fall efemonger, in St. James's ceared for each.

Holloway, near London, ling, full aged, all his e, a Scar in the Stings- y him, and gives Notice ay aforesaid, shall be ay