

round it, both filled with water, and the taking of it is the more considerable, because it was done in the sight of the French Army. Advice is come from Ustiano, that the Enemy are in full March; upon which a Party was sent out to get a more certain Account; but being met and pursued by a stronger Party of the Enemy, they were forced to return. The Rains having begun again to fall yesterday, Prince Eugene caused his Horse to be cantoned in the Villages herabouts, which are most deserted by their Inhabitants.

Venice, Dec. 9. The Emperor's Ambassador here received an Express the 5th Instant from Prince Eugene, acquainting him with his having taken Canova, a Post of great Consequence; The Garrison of that Place, which consisted of 600 Men, surrendering upon Discretion, which the Ambassador communicated to the Senate in an Audience he had of them the next day; as likewise, that most of the Imperial Forces are marched out of the Venetian Territories into those of Mantua, as the rest will do in a short time. We hear, that after the taking of Canova, the Germans possessed themselves of several other Places Garrison'd by the French, and particularly of Marcaria, where Prince Eugene at present has his head Quarters. This Place lies on this side the Oglio, not far from the Town of Bozolo, which the Germans intend to attack likewise. The German Parties make Excursions into the Mantuan, and advance to the very Walls of Mantua; One of them lately surpris'd a great Magazine of Hay the French had laid up at a Place called Marmirolo, which they burnt for want of Conveniences to carry it off, and they took an Ensign and about 20 French Soldiers that guarded it. They write from Verona, that the Danish Forces, consisting of 2000 Horse, and 4000 Foot, with the two Imperial Regiments of Foot of 2500 Men each, lately come from Germany, arriv'd the first Instant in the neighbourhood of Villa-Franca, where they were met by Prince Commercy with the Detachment under his Command; These two Bodies being joined together make above 20000 Men; and we expect by our next Advices from the Mantuan to hear of their having besieged Gaiso. The French had made a Bridge over the Mincio near Borghetto, which they demolished upon the approach of the Germans, who are now repairing the same.

Vienna, Dec. 10. Count Guttenstein's departure for Italy is put off till next week; he carries with him Bills for a considerable Sum of Money to pay the Imperial Forces. The Captain of the Guard at Newstadt, who assisted Prince Ragotzi to make his escape, was beheaded there some days ago, according to the Sentence pass'd upon him. The Levies for recruiting the Emperor's Forces go on with very good Success.

Cologne, Dec. 20. The Elector Palatine has given Orders for building a Fort near the Rhine, over-against that which the Elector of Cologne is making near Bon, and another near Dusseldorp. The Palatine Regiment of Aubach is marched to reinforce the Troops that are posted near Spire, to cover the Lines which are making on that side; 'tis said, another Regiment of the Forces of the Elector Palatine is shortly to march from these Parts to Coblentz, to reinforce the Garrison of that Place. His Electoral Highness continues his Resolution of removing from Dusseldorp to Nienburgh. They write from Dusseldorp, That Baron Wiezler, the Elector's Chancellor, was on his departure from thence to Vienna.

Hague, Dec. 23. N.S. The Court at Brussels being informed by an Express, That the Dutch Garrison at Sas Van Ghent had fired upon the Fort the Spensiards and French were building near that Place, a great Council was held there, where Marshal Boufflers was present, who immediately after dispatched a Courier to the French Court, with an Account of what had pass'd, and to receive the King's Orders thereupon. This day was published a Placat by the States of Holland and West-Friesland, for raising the two hundred Penny upon all real and personal Estates in this Province twice the next year; The Placat for crying down the brass Money now used in this Province is also published. Monsieur Nisfits, Envoy from the King of Poland, arriv'd here this week from Warsaw, and will embark for England in a day or two.
