

the eastern end of the northern wall or fence of Wealdstone Cemetery and Wealdstone Recreation Ground in the middle of the Stanmore Branch of the London Midland and Scottish Railway on the boundary of the said parish of Saint Anselm, Belmont, and extending thence westwards to and along the last mentioned wall or fence to its junction with the southern end of the eastern wall or fence belonging to the house No. 89, Belmont Road and extending thence north-westwards along the last mentioned wall or fence across Belmont Road to the southern end of the eastern wall or fence belonging to the house No. 72 Belmont Road and extending thence north-westwards along the last mentioned wall or fence to its northern end and extending thence westwards to and along the northern walls or fences of the houses Nos. 2 to 72 Belmont Road to a point where the western end of the last mentioned walls or fences join the eastern end of the northern wall or fence of the house No. 13 Stuart Road and extending thence westwards along the last mentioned wall or fence to its western end and extending thence in the same direction to a point opposite to such western end of the said wall or fence in the middle of Stuart Road and extending thence southwards along the middle of the last mentioned Road to a point opposite to the eastern end of the southern wall or fence belonging to the house No. 6 Stuart Road and extending thence to and along the last mentioned wall or fence to its western end on the boundary which divides the said parish of Holy Trinity, Wealdstone, from the said parish of All Saints, Harrow Weald.

(2) All that portion of the said parish of All Saints, Harrow Weald which is bounded upon the west by the said parish of Holy Trinity, Wealdstone, and upon the east and the north-east by an imaginary line commencing at the junction of the boundary of the said parish of All Saints, Harrow Weald, with the boundary of the said parish of Holy Trinity, Wealdstone, in the middle of Byron Road at a point opposite to the western end of the northern wall or fence of the house No. 133 Byron Road and extending thence northwards along the middle of that road to its junction with Locket Road and continuing thence across Locket Road and thence north-westwards along the middle of Byron Road to a point opposite to the house No. 289 Byron Road at the junction of the boundary of the said parish of All Saints, Harrow Weald, with the boundary of the said parish of Holy Trinity, Wealdstone.

" Part II.

" The area comprising:—

All those contiguous portions (shown respectively by the pink and blue colours on the map hereto) of the parish of All Saints, Harrow Weald, and of the parish of Holy Trinity, Wealdstone, both in the said diocese which taken together are bounded upon the north-east, upon the south-east, and upon part of the south by the parish of Great Stanmore, the parish of Saint Anselm, Belmont, and the said parish of Holy Trinity, Wealdstone, and upon the remaining sides, that is to say, upon the remaining part of the south upon the west, upon the south-west, upon the north and upon the north-west by an imaginary line commencing at the western end of the wall or fence belonging to the house No. 6 Stuart Road on the boundary of the said parish of Holy Trinity, Wealdstone, and extending thence southwards to and along the eastern walls or fences of the houses Nos. 131 to 119 Byron Road to their junction with the eastern end of the southern wall or fence of the house No. 119 Byron Road and extending thence along the last mentioned wall or fence to its western end and extending thence westwards to a point opposite to the middle of the eastern end of Canning Road in the middle of Byron Road and extending thence northwards along the middle of the last mentioned Road to its junction with Locket Road and continuing thence across Locket Road and thence north-westwards along the middle of Byron Road to a point opposite to the middle of Montrose Road and extending thence south-westwards to and along the middle of the last mentioned Road to its junction with Broadway and extending thence to and along the middle of the last mentioned roadway to its junction with Crossway and extending thence north-westwards to and then north-eastwards along the middle of the last mentioned roadway to a point opposite to the middle of Greenway and extending thence north-westwards to and along the middle of Greenway to its junction with Meadow Way and extending thence first north-westwards to and then westwards along the middle of Meadow Way to its junction with High Road and extending thence first westwards to the middle of the last mentioned road and then north-westwards along the middle of that road to a point opposite to the middle of College Avenue and extending thence eastwards to and along the middle of that avenue to its eastern end and thence across College Hill Road to the Road known as The Avenue and then continuing generally in a north-easterly direction along the middle of The Avenue and the Road known as The Highway to a point in the middle of The Highway opposite to the western end of the northern wall or fence belonging to the house No. 78 The Highway and extending thence north-eastwards to and along the last mentioned wall or fence to its north-eastern end and extending thence eastwards in a straight line to the boundary which divides the said parish of All Saints, Harrow Weald, from the said parish of Great Stanmore."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Measure.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of London.

E. C. E. Leadbitter

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 4th day of June, 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 9th day of May, 1946, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the church and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Saint James, Birch in Rusholme, in the county of Lancaster and in the diocese of Manchester:

" Whereas we are satisfied that Sir Edward Reynell Anson of Goldthorn House, Bracknell in the county of Berks, Baronet, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

" And whereas the said Edward Reynell Anson desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Manchester for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

" And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Guy, Bishop of Manchester (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Guy, Bishop of Manchester, and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Manchester for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct