WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 25th day of July 1946 in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Act of the 6th and 7th years of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, Chapter 77, of the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 113, and of the Act of the 37th and 38th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 63, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme with respect to four of the rural deaneries within the Archdeaconry of Hereford, all in the diocese of Hereford.

"Whereas it has been represented to us that the arrangements which are hereinafter recommended and proposed with respect to four of the rural deaneries within the said Archdeaconry are desirable and we are of the opinion that the same may be properly carried into effect:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Richard, Bishop of Hereford (in testimony whereof he has signed and sealed this Scheme) We, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, humbly recommend and propose that as from the day on which any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme shall be published in the London Gazette, and without any assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, first the parish or cure of Wormesley shall be transferred from the rural deanery of Weston to the rural deanery of Weobley and, secondly, the parish or cure of Ballingham with Bolstone shall be transferred from the rural deanery of Ross and Archenfield to the rural deanery of Hereford South, all of which said rural deaneries are in the said Archdeaconry of Hereford, and each of the parishes or cures transferred as hereinbefore mentioned shall be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of the rural dean of the rural deanery to which it is hereby transferred and shall not belong to or be part of any other rural deanery, nor be subject to the jurisdiction and authority of any other rural dean."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to

"And whereas the said Viscount Combermere desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Chester for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):
