WEST CORNWALL JOINT PLANNING COMMITTEE.

THE WEST CORNWALL TOWN AND COUNTRY PLANNING (SPECIAL INTERIM DEVELOPMENT) ORDER, 1946.

NOTICE is hereby given that on the application of the above-mentioned Planning Committee the Minister of Town and Country Planning on the 6th July, 1946, confirmed a Direction affecting the development of land and buildings in that part of the Borough of Penzance known as the Alverton Street and Greenmarket Area, and more particularly described hereunder:—

The area of land bounded on the north by and including the south side of Alverton Street and the south side of the Greenmarket. Bounded on the east by and including the western side of Market Place and Queen's Square. Bounded on the south by and including the north side of Parade Street and Victoria Place (excepting certain buildings). Bounded on the west by but not including Wellington Place and Wellington Terrace.

In accordance with the provisions of the Town and Country Planning (General Interim Development) Order, 1946, the Direction supported by a plan of the area and giving full details of the restrictions to be imposed may be inspected at the office of the Planning Committee at Alphington House, Alverton, Penzance, without payment of fee during the usual office hours. A concise summary of the restrictions is that no rebuilding, restoration or replacement of buildings and plant which have sustained war damage, subject to certain exceptions, nor the alterations to existing buildings or any other building operations other than general maintenance works within a defined limit is permitted without the permission of the Planning Committee being first obtained in the manner directed by the Order.

Dated this 2nd day of September, 1946.

D. J. BEATTIE, Secretary.
