Duke of Modena, to desire him to admit a German Garrison into Bersello, returned, and gave Prince Eugene an Account, that the Duke at first made some difficulty, but being pressed, not only consented to what was demanded of him, but desired to be received, rogether with his Dominions, into the Emperor's Profection. Upon this the 6 Bartalions of Staremberg and Daun, and the Dragoons of Savoy and Vanbonne, advanced to the very Gates of Bersello, and the Commander was summoned to open the Gates; which he did after some difficulty, and a Battalion of the Regiment of Staremberg, another of Daun, and two Companies of Granadiers, marched into the Town. Prince Eugene took a view of the Place, and found it in a good Condition of Desience, and provided with a good Artillery. The rest of the Battalions went to Guarteri and Castelnovo, the Dragoons of Savoy and Vaubonne returned to their Quarters, and Major-General Count Districtssein remained with the two Regiments of Chirasses of Darmssa and Vaudennet, and his own Regiment of Dragoons; in the Parmssan, near the River Luzz. Major-General Vousbonne was sent with 400 Horse to the Country of Assarch for Intelligence. The Officer sent to the Duke of Parma came back, with an Officer of the said Duke, who, in his Master's Name, protested against the Germans taking Quarters in his Country, alledging, That he would observe a Neutrality, and was a Valial of the Pope; But Prince Eugent replied; That there was a necessity at this time for the Imperial Troops to take Quarters in the Parmssan, and that he would send a Commissary with them to regulate Matters. The 6th. Prince Eugene continued at Gastrieri; to give the necessary Dractions about fertaling the Garrison at Bersello, and other Affairs. The 7th, his Highness went to Lizzana, with a design to stay there iome time, and to make it his Head Quarters. We received an Account Duke of Modena, to defire him to admit a German Garand other Affairs.
