

(c) any of the Women's Services, that is to say, any of the capacities mentioned in the First Schedule of the Disabled Persons (Employment) Act, 1944.

11. The list of successful candidates for each situation at each examination shall be determined by the Commissioners having regard to the number and ability of the competitors.

12. Of the candidates next in order of merit to those declared successful in any examination a certain number at the discretion of the Commissioners may be classified as reserve candidates and considered for appointment in conjunction with the results of a later examination.

13. Persons upon whose training for the occupation of teacher public money has been spent cannot be appointed until the consent of the appropriate central education authority (that is, the Ministry of Education, the Scottish Education Department, or the Ministry of Education for Northern Ireland, as the case may be) has been notified to the Commissioners.

14. Candidates shall pay a fee of 10s. on application whether they are competing for one situation or both.

15. Any attempt on the part of candidates to enlist support for their applications through Members of Parliament or other influential persons, except as referees to be named by them in their application form, will disqualify them for appointment.

16. These Regulations will come into force immediately and will apply to competitions for the situations in the Post Office of Assistant Engineer (New style) in the Engineering Department and Assistant Traffic Superintendent in the Telephone Service until the resumption of examinations for these situations under normal conditions.
