

being or having been an officer, seaman or marine therein, shall be paid in such manner and subject to such restrictions, conditions and provisions as are from time to time directed by Order in Council:

"And whereas a vacancy for the appointment of Keeper and Steward of the Royal Cabins in Your Majesty's Yachts has been caused by the retirement of Mr. Albert Skipworth, whose promotion and appointment to that post were approved by Your Majesty's Order in Council of 16th March, 1933:

"We beg leave humbly to recommend that Your Majesty may be graciously pleased by Your Order in Council to sanction the promotion of such candidates as may be selected from time to time to fill this post under the conditions laid down in the annexed Schedule.

"The Lords Commissioners of Your Majesty's Treasury have signified Their concurrence in these proposals.

" SCHEDULE.

"(a) The officer to serve under the conditions applicable to Warrant Officers.

"(b) In the event of the selection of a candidate for the appointment who is above the age for retirement of Warrant Officers, as may be in force from time to time, the candidate to be promoted to Warrant rank and placed on the Retired List on the following day. No bonus on full pay to be payable.

"(c) Payment of any pension awarded in respect of previous service as a rating to cease on appointment to the post.

"(d) Retired Pay on finally vacating the appointment to be on the scale and under the conditions laid down for permanent Warrant Officers, the whole of service in Warrant rank on the Active or Retired Lists during which bonus on pay is not drawn counting in full, and all service in man's rating from age 18 counting as one half, subject to the completion of not less than 15 years total officer service (including any rating's service reckonable as half); if less than 15 years such service have been completed on final retirement, the officer to be eligible for pension based on his total service on the rating's scale, service in this appointment counting for rank addition as service in Warrant rank. Retired pay to be payable on invaliding in accordance with the regulations applicable to permanent Warrant Officers.

"(e) The Officer's widow to be eligible for pension as for the widow of a Warrant Officer under the usual regulations."

HIS MAJESTY, having taken the said Memorial into consideration, was pleased, by and with the advice of His Privy Council, to approve of what is therein proposed.

AND the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of the Admiralty are to give the necessary directions herein accordingly.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of November, 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 21st day of November, 1946, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of an alternate part or share of the ownership of the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the churches and cures (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Kirklington with Hockerton in the county of Nottingham and in the diocese of Southwell.

"Whereas by the Will, dated the 1st June, 1939, of the late Lady Eveline Maude Robinson of Kirklington Hall in the said county of Nottingham, an alternate part or share of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice was devised to the Bishop of Southwell and his successors in right of the See of Southwell.

"And whereas John Farr of Worksop Manor in the said county of Nottingham, Company Managing Director, and Arthur Jobling of Broadeaves, Newstead Abbey Park, Linby in the said county of Nottingham, Bank Manager are the Executors of the said Will who but for the hereinbefore recited devise would be the persons entitled to the said alternate right of patronage heretofore exercisable by the said late Lady Eveline Maude Robinson and they are desirous that anything which by way of further assurance or otherwise may be required effectually to carry out the devise may be done and application has been made to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners that a Scheme under the said Acts may be prepared for the said purpose and submitted to Your Majesty in Council:

"And whereas the said John Farr and Arthur Jobling and the Right Reverend Frank Russell, Bishop of Southwell as Bishop of the diocese wherein the said benefice is situate and also in token of his willingness to accept the said devise, are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the share heretofore exercisable by the said late Lady Eveline Maude Robinson of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Frank Russell, Bishop of Southwell and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Southwell for the time being."

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased hereby to ratify the said Scheme, and to order and direct that the same and every part thereof shall be effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette pursuant to the said Acts.

And His Majesty, by and with the like advice, is pleased hereby to direct that this Order be forthwith registered by the Registrar of the said Diocese of Southwell.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 29th day of November, 1946.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 10th day of October, 1940, in the words and figures following, that is to say:

"We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, acting in pursuance of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, have prepared and now humbly lay before Your Majesty in Council the following Scheme for effecting the union of the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Laneast, and the Benefice (being a Vicarage) of Saint Clether both of which Benefices are situate in the County of Cornwall and in the Diocese of Truro:

"Whereas Commissioners appointed at our request by the Right Reverend Joseph Wellington, Bishop of Truro, pursuant to the provisions of the said Measures to inquire into and report upon the union of the said two Benefices of Laneast and Saint Clether duly made their Report to the said Bishop of Truro and therein recommended the union of the said two Benefices and the terms for effecting the union, and the said Bishop of Truro signified in writing his approval of the said Report:

"And whereas we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, have prepared this Scheme for the union of the said two Benefices based upon the terms recommended in the said Report:
