"Whereas we are satisfied that the Right Honourable Orlando, Earl of Bradford, is the patron or person entitled to present or nominate to the said benefice in case the same were now vacant:

"And whereas the said Orlando, Earl of Bradford, desires to transfer the advowson of the said benefice to the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being and is consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof he has executed the same):

"And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

"Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Edward, Bishop of Lichfield (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Edward, Bishop of Lichfield and his successors in the same Bishopric and shall thereupon and thenceforth become and be absolutely vested in and shall and may from time to time be exercised by the Bishop of Lichfield for the time being."
