

this Scheme is published in the London Gazette the union shall forthwith take effect.

" 3. Parsonage House. (1) Upon the union taking effect the parsonage house (if any) belonging to the benefice of Lenton at that date shall be the house of residence of the incumbent of the united benefice.

(2) If the parsonage house now belonging to the benefice of Ingoldsby shall not have been sold or disposed of under the Parsonages Measure, 1938, before the taking effect of the union or shall not at that date be in process of being disposed of under that Measure it and the site and appurtenances thereof and the grounds usually occupied and enjoyed therewith shall be sold and disposed of by us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, after the union has taken effect at such time or times and in such manner in all respects as to us shall seem expedient.

(3) If, pursuant to the last preceding paragraph, the said parsonage house be sold by us as aforesaid so much of the net proceeds of the sale as after consultation with the Bishop of the said diocese we shall deem sufficient shall be applied towards the cost of the modernisation and improvement of the parsonage house of the united benefice in accordance with plans to be approved by us or by Queen Anne's Bounty. Provided that, pending completion of the said works of modernisation and improvement, the interest up to an annual sum of £100 in respect of the net proceeds of sale shall be paid by us to the incumbent of the united benefice.

" 4. Diversion of endowments. There shall be severed or diverted from the united benefice and transferred to us, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners, for the benefit of our Common Fund—

(a) upon the union taking effect, the endowments specified in Part I of the Schedule hereto, and

(b) upon the union taking effect or upon the cesser of the pension of £161 per annum now charged upon the revenues of the benefice of Lenton in favour of the Reverend Canon George Bass Vessey (whichever date shall be the later), the endowments specified in Part II of the said Schedule, being in each case present endowments of the benefices of Lenton and Ingoldsby and in consideration of the said transfers we shall make from time to time such grants as we may deem appropriate in augmentation or endowment of benefices in the said diocese. Provided that, if the parsonage house of Ingoldsby be not sold under the Parsonages Measure, then pending modernisation and improvement as aforesaid of the parsonage house of the united benefice, such grant shall first be made by us from time to time to the incumbent of the united benefice as will amount together with any interest paid to him under paragraph 3 of this Scheme to an annual sum £100.

" 5. Patronage. After the union has taken effect the right of presentation to the united benefice shall be exercised by the patrons of the two benefices alternately, the patron of the benefice of Lenton having the first presentation to the united benefice to be made after the union.

And whereas the provisions of the Union of Benefices Measures, 1923 to 1936, and the Union of Benefices Rules, 1926 to 1930, relating to the preparation and submission of this Scheme have been duly complied with:

And whereas the said Scheme has been approved by His Majesty in Council:

Now, therefore, His Majesty, by and with the advice of His said Council, is pleased to affirm the said Scheme and to order that it shall be and become effectual in law immediately upon the publication of this Order in the London Gazette.

E. C. E. Leadbitter.

At the Court at Buckingham Palace, the 21st day of May, 1947.

PRESENT,

The KING's Most Excellent Majesty in Council.

WHEREAS the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England have duly prepared and laid before His Majesty in Council a Scheme bearing date the 24th day of April, 1947, in the words and figures following, that is to say:—

" We, the Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, in pursuance of the Act of the 33rd and 34th years of Her late Majesty Queen Victoria, Chapter 39, and of the Acts therein mentioned, that is to say, the Act of the 3rd and 4th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 113, the Act of the 4th and 5th years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 39, and the Act of the 31st and 32nd years of Her said late Majesty, Chapter 114, have prepared the following Scheme for effecting a transfer of the ownership of a part or share of and in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the churches and cure (hereinafter called 'the said benefice') of Farthinghoe with Thenford in the county of Northampton and in the diocese of Peterborough:

" Whereas we are satisfied that Harry Algernon Needham, of The Ridge, 49, Somerville Road, Sutton Coldfield, in the county of Warwick, Clerk in Holy Orders; Sidney Ernest Page Needham, of Tudor Lodge, Stroud Green, Newbury, in the county of Berks, Clerk in Holy Orders; Montague Harold Needham, of Hele House, Ashburton, in the county of Devon, Clerk in Holy Orders; and Henry Parker Needham, of 139, Sandford Road, Moseley, Birmingham 13, Solicitor, are entitled to three one-fourth parts or shares of and in the advowson of the said benefice:

" And whereas the said Harry Algernon Needham, Sidney Ernest Page Needham, Montague Harold Needham, and Henry Parker Needham desire to transfer their rights of patronage in respect of the said benefice to the Bishop of Peterborough for the time being and are consenting to this Scheme (in testimony whereof they have executed the same):

" And whereas we are satisfied that the transfer will tend to make better provision for the cure of souls:

" Now, therefore, with the consent of the Right Reverend Claude, Bishop of Peterborough (in testimony whereof he has executed this Scheme), we, the said Ecclesiastical Commissioners for England, humbly recommend and propose that upon and from the day of the date of the publication in the London Gazette of any Order of Your Majesty in Council ratifying this Scheme and without any conveyance or assurance in the law other than such duly gazetted Order, the whole interest of the said Harry Algernon Needham, Sidney Ernest Page Needham, Montague Harold Needham, and Henry Parker Needham in the advowson or perpetual right of patronage of and presentation to the said benefice shall be transferred to the said Claude, Bishop of
