ST. James's, March 7. The following Address from the Corporation of Heydon, was presented to Her Majesty by Henry Guy Esq; Sir Robert Hildyard, and Anthony Duncomb Esq; the Two last being their Representatives in Parliament.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Aldermen, Bayliffs, and Burgesses, of Your Majesties ancient Town and Corporation of Heydon in Holderness in your County of York.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, are so sensible of the great Loss we have sustained by the Death of our Sovereign King William the Third, of ever glorious memory, that nothing less than the clear Prospect we have of those Blessings we justly expect to enjoy under Your Majesties Reign, could bring us Comfort under so great and just an Affliction.

Wherefore we humbly crave leave most heartily and unanimously to Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Throne, and to assure Your Majesty, that with a firm Zeal and Loyalty we will, to the utmost of our Power, with our Lives and Estates, support, maintain, and defend Your Majesty and your Government in Church and State as by Law Established, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Your Majesties Enemies either Foreign or Domestick.

Our continual and zealous Prayers shall be for Your Majesties Health and Prosperity, and long Reign over us. In Testimony whereof, we have hereto affixed our Common Seal, this 28th day of March, in the First year of your Majesties Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Leominster, was presented to Her Majesty by the Right Honourable the Lord Comynsby, and Edward Harley Esq; their Representatives in Parliament.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, High Steward, Recorder, Justices of the Peace, and Capital Burgesses, of Your Majesties ancient Borough of Leominster in the County of Hereford.

Most Gracious Sovereign,
As we are most sensibly affected with the Death of his late Majesty, who, by the immediate Providence of Heaven, was the Deliverer of these Kingdoms from Popery and Slavery, so we do most humbly Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Throne; hoping, that as your Royal Predecessor did by her Virgin Arms controul the once Haughty Power of Spain, so your Royal Name will be for ever illustrious, that under your Reign the Exorbitant Power of France is Reduced, the Emperor supported in the Acquisition and Detence of his just Rights, the States of Holland Protected, our Religion, Laws and Liberties Preserved, and all Europe freed from the Fears of an Universal Tyranny: That the Almighty would please to make the Triumphs and Blessings of Your Majesties Government, shall be the constant Prayers of us Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, who do hereby protest our unalterable Resolution of sacrificing all that is dear to us in Defence of your Royal Person and Government, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all your Enemies. In Testimony whereof, we have caud the Common Seal of our said Borough to be hereunto affixed, this 30th day of March, in the First year of Your Majesties most Gracious Reign.

The following Address from the Borough of Cricklade, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Stephen Fox, one of the Lords Commissioners of Her Majesty's Treasury, and one of the Representatives in Parliament of the said Borough.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bayliff, Minister, Burgesses, Gentlemen, and other Inhabitants, of Your ancient Borough of Cricklade, in Your County of Wils.

May it please Your Majesty,
WE Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, do, upon this Solemn Occasion, with all Humility, beg leave to testify our sincere Grief for the unparellel'd Loss which these Kingdoms have sustained by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King William, of ever glorious memory; and withal our unfeigned Joy for the happy Reformation, which it has pleased the Divine Goodness to make for that day, in placing Your most Sacred Majesty on the Throne of your Royal Progenitors.

Your Majesty has graciously been pleased to lay open your Heart before us, to let us see that it is truly English, and to give us your inviolable Word for the Defence of our Religion, Laws and Liberties, against all Opposers whatsoever: In testimony whereof, we think our selves oblig'd not only to present our hearty Thanks to Your Majesty for so great a Conjunction, but to assure Your Majesty, that we shall, with all our Power, be ready to make your Religion, Laws, Liberties, Honour, and Majesty, Great at Home, and not less Great abroad.

And we shall ever pray, as in Duty bound, for Your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us. In testimony whereof, We have hereunto affixed our Common Seal the day and Year above said.

The following Address from the Borough of Thirsk, was presented to Her Majesty by Sir Geoffrey Copley, and Sir Tho. Frankland, Barons, their Representatives in Parliament.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Borough Bayliff, and Free Burgesses, of the ancient and loyal Borough of Thirsk, in the North-Riding of the County of York.

May it please Your Majesty,

WE Your Majesties most humble and obedient Subjects, do from the bottom of our Hearts Console with Your Majesty the Death of our late Sovereign William the Third, of glorious memory; and at the same time do Congratulate Your Majesties most grateful and happy Accession to the Throne.

Upon this occasion we think our selves obliged to assure Your Majesty of our steadfast and constant Obedience to your Government, and of our sincere Resolutions to exert the utmost of our Abilities in the Defence of Your Majesties Sacred Person and Title to the Imperial Crown of this Realm, and the Succession in the Protestant Line.

As we were always convinced of Your Majesties Zeal to the Established Religion and Liberties of your Country, so we cannot but think our selves bound in Duty and Gratitude to return Your Majesty our most hearty Thanks for Your Majesties late Gracious Declaration in Council, and Speech to your Parliament; by which Your Majesty gives your People a fresh and full Assurance of your Tenderness for them. That Your Majesties Reign may be long and prosperous, shall be the constant Prayers of Your Majesties most Obedient, most Humble, and most Faithful Subjects and Servants.

The following Address from the Borough of Abingdon, was presented to Her Majesty by Simon Harcourt Esq; their Recorder, and their Representative in Parliament.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, the Mayor, Bayliffs, and Burgesses, of Abingdon in the County of Berks.

May it please Your Majesty,

AT the same time we reflect upon what Loss the Nation has sustained by the Death of his late Majesty, we cannot but be truly sensible of the unparellel'd Blessing we have received by Your Majesties Succession to the Throne.

Your Majesties Zeal in your most Gracious Declaration express'd for the Religion, Laws and Liberties of England, and your Resolution to maintain the Government in Church and State, as by Law Established, have fill'd our Hearts with inexpressible Joy, and justly require from us an innumerable Returns of Duty and Affection to Your Majesty.

The Affectionate and Tender Concern Your Majesty has been pleas'd to shew for the Ease and Relief of your Subjects, whilst under the Pressure of necessary Supplies for the Service of the Publick, sufficiently demonstrate Your Majesties unparellel'd Grace and Goodness towards them, and that your Heart is entirely English.

May all Your Majesties Subjects think themselves under the same Obligations as we esteem our selves, to maintain and defend Your Majesties unquestionable Right and Title to the Crown against all your open and secret Enemies, and may Your Majesty long live, to receive the cheerful Obedience of your People.

The following Address from the Borough of Ipswich, was presented to Her Majesty, by Charles Whitaker Esq; Her Majesty's Serjeant at Law, Recorder of the said Town, and Richard Phillips Esq; their Representatives in Parliament; Introduced by the Right Honourable the Lord Cornwallis, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Suffolk.

The humble Address of the Bayliffs, Recorder, Portmen, Town Clerk, Common-Council, and the rest of the Free Burgesses of your Majesties Ancient and Loyal Corporation of the Town of Ipswich, agreed on at a great Court there holden the Second day of April, in the first Year of Your Majesties Reign.

May it please your most Excellent Majesty,

Your Majesties most Gracious Acceptance of the many just Condolences and Congratulations that have been presented to Your Majesty on occasion of His late Majesty's decease, and of Your Majesties Accession to the Throne, Encouraging us to follow their Examples; We humbly presume to assure Your Majesty, that as no Subjects of the late King did or could pay a more true Allegiance to him or had a higher Zeal and Affection for his Government, or more grateful Thoughts for the great Things which he did and always delighted to do, as well for the Preservation of the Protestant Religion, as of the Liberties of Europe, and particularly within this Realm; so we are doubting of Your Majesties sincere Inclinations and Intentions to pursue those great and glorious designs, shall ever pay the same true unfeign'd Allegiance, Zeal and Affection to Your Majesty, and shall always stand by Your Majesty with our Lives and Fortunes as well for the defence of our Religion and the Government in Church and State as now by Law established, as of Your Majesties most sacred Person, and the Succession of the Crown in the Protestant Line, against the pretended Prince of Wales, the Usurp'd and Exorbitant Power of France, and all other Your Majesties Enemies whatsoever: And we shall ever pray, as in Duty bound, for Your Majesty's long and happy Reign over us. In testimony whereof, We have hereunto affixed our Common Seal the day and Year above said.

The following Address from the City of Rochester, was presented to Her Majesty by Francis Barrell, and William Bokenham, Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament.
