St. James's, April 15. The following Address from the County of Lincoln was presented to Her Majesty by Sir John Thorold Bar. and the Hon. Charles Dimocke Esq; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Great Chamberlain, Lord Lieutenant of the said County.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Lord Lieutenant, High Sheriff, Deputy Lieutenants, Justices of the Peace, Gentlemen, and Clergy of the County of Lincoln.

May it please Your Majesty,
As we cannot but Condole with Your Majesty for the great Loss of our late Sovereign Lord King William, of blessed Memory, so we are fill'd with a just and a thankful Sense of the Mercy of the Divine Providence, in preserving and securing to us the Blessing of Your Majesties Succession to the Throne of your Royal Ancestors; And we joyfully embrace this occasion to Congratulate Your Majesty on the general Satisfaction of the Nation, and the Happiness they with Confidence expect in your most Gracious Reign; We beg leave likewise to thank Your Majesty for your most Gracious and repeated Assurances, That You will Maintain and Protect the lawful Constitution both in Church and State, and especially for the endearing Expression to your Parliament from the Throne, which must for ever engage to Your Majesty all Hearts truly English; And we crave this further leave, with all Humility, to offer our Solemn and Dutiful Assurances, That it shall be our constant Endeavour, to the utmost of our Powers, to render the Crown easy and secure on your Sacred Head, against the Pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Attempts, Persons, and Pretenders whatsoever, and to make your Reign Glorious, which God in his Mercy make long, and perpetuate to us a Protestant Succession in Your Majesties Royal Issue; which are the hearty Prayers of us and all good Subjects.

The following Address from the City of Canterbury was presented to Her Majesty by John Beaver Esq; their Mayor, Matthias Gray one of the Aldermen, and by George Sayers and Henry Lee Esqs; their Representatives in Parliament, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Earl of Romney, Lord Lieutenant of the County of Kent.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Mayor, Recorder, Aldermen, Sheriff, Common Council, Freemen, and Inhabitants, of the City of Canterbury.

May it please Your Majesty,
We Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects, humbly beg leave to Condole the great Loss which this Kingdom and all Europe have sustained by the Death of our late Sovereign Lord King William; the Sense of which Affliction can affect none of Your Majesties Subjects more deeply than us of this City, who have been so often Honoured with his Royal Presence.

But since it hath pleased Almighty God abundantly to repair that Loss by giving us Your Majesty to Reign over us, we thankfully adore his Divine Goodness, and with Hearts full of Joy and perfect Satisfaction humbly Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Crown, sincerely assuring Your Majesty, That we will contribute our utmost Endeavours for the Defence and Preservation of Your Sacred Person and Government, against the pretended Prince of Wales, and all other Your Majesties Enemies whatsoever.

We also think it our Duty to return our most humble Thanks to Your Majesty for those Gracious Assurances Your Majesty has vouchsafed to give us by your late Declarations from the Throne, in which we most entirely confide, and humbly pray, That Almighty God, who has inspired your Royal Heart with such pious Concern for the true Interest of England in Church and State, and such generous Purposes to secure the Liberties of Europe, will preserve your Sacred Life for the Accomplishment of those Great Ends, and give you a long and glorious Reign over us.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Reverend Dr. Knightly Chetwood, Archdeacon of York, the Rev. Dr. Fild, and the Hon. Mr. Finch, introduced by his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury.

To Her most Excellent Majesty, Anne, by the Grace of God, of England, Scotland, France and Ireland, Queen, Defender of the Faith, &c.

May it please Your Majesty,

We Your Majesties most Faithful and Loyal Subjects, the Archbishop, Dean, and Chapter of the Cathedral and Metropolitan Church of York, and Clergy of the same City, do humbly beg leave to Condole with Your Majesty upon the sad occasion of the surprizing and afflicting Death of our late Great Sovereign King William III. of ever Glorious Memory.

We must own, That this was a Stroke of Divine Providence so terrible and amazing, as no mortal Views and Considerations could have abated the Severity, or supported us under the Sense of it, but the immediate Accession of Your Majesty to the Thrones of these Kingdoms, from whom (under God) we have great reason to hope for the Enjoyment of all those invaluable Rights and Privileges, both Ecclesiastical and Civil, which the Exercise of the Sovereign Power, and Administration of the Government, by a Wise, just, and truly Christian Princess can procure to a People.

And therefore as we have Cause to adore the unspeakable Goodness of God for tempering his deserved Wrath with such a wonderful Mixture of undeserved Mercy, so we cannot but look upon our selves bound by Interest, as well as Duty, to offer and vindicate Your Majesties Right and Title to these Kingdoms, which You are so lawfully possess'd of, against all your Enemies whatsoever; and daily to pray to God, That our Reign over us may be long and prosperous.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Sarum, attended by several of the Prebendaries of that Cathedral.

To the Queen's most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop, Dean, and Chapter of the Cathedral Church of Sarum,

May it please Your Majesty,

When we had lost our Great Sovereign King William III. of Glorious Memory, and were cut off from the Benefit of those Graces wherewith he was wont to watch over our publick Welfare, the Loss seem'd to be astonishing, and we thought a while that all our Hopes of being happy were expired with him; but Your Majesties Succession to the Throne, brighten'd with such ample Demonstrations of your Wisdom to Govern, and Courage to Defend, and Sincerity to Oblige, has taught all your People to believe, That although God has changed the Instrument of our Happiness, he has not changed the purpose; but that we may still see the most desirable Days, if we resist not the Grace that offers them through Your Majesties Administration.

We in particular, whose Profession it is to attend the Service of the Established Religion, are bound especially to bless God for the great Example of Your Majesties Steady and Uniform Piety, from whose Influence the Religion we profess cannot but reap the Advantage both of having it's Temper better consider'd by the Disaffected, and it's Efficacy better felt among the Indifferent.

May it therefore please your Gracious Majesty to accept of our Zealous and Dutiful Congratulations; and may it please Almighty God to accept of our Humble and affectionate Desires that Your Majesty may be a Blessing to the People You Govern, in a Long and Prosperous Reign: And we do faithfully vow all Loyal Obedience to Your Majesty, as our Lawful and Rightful Sovereign, to whom we will ever adhere, in opposition to all your Enemies whatsoever, at home and abroad; and we will, to the utmost of our Power, with our Prayers and Services assist Your Majesty in all your Glorious Designs, and most particularly in Maintaining the Succession to the Crown in the Protestant Line, and in Defending and Supporting the Church of England as by Law established.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Rt. Rev. the Lord Bishop of Oxford, attended by several of the Clergy of his Diocese.

To the Queen's Most Excellent Majesty.

The humble Address of the Bishop and Clergy of the Diocese of Oxford.

May it please Your Majesty,

As we do, with the greatest Submission to the Divine Providence, lament the Unspeakable Loss of our late Great Sovereign, of Blessed Memory; so with equal Thankfulness to the same Providence we sincerely Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Throne; at once kissing the Rod which has stricken, and blessing the Hand which hath healed us.

The true Concern for our most Holy Religion, the Laws and Liberties of England, the Succession in the Protestant Line, and the Government in Church and State as by Law established, the Care for the Encouragement of your Allies, and the affectionate Inclination to the Good of all your Subjects, which Your Majesty has expressed in your most Gracious Speech to your Parliament, convince us, that these Ideas were very just which we had formed to our selves of Your Majesty from our Observations of that exemplary Piety, Zeal for our established Church, Love to your Country, and Affection to the Protestant Interest, which adorn'd your private Life, and render'd You most deserving of that Crown which Your Majesty does now most justly and rightfully possess, and give us full Assurance of all the Happiness we can wish for under Your Majesties most Auspicious Reign.

The Designs were truly great which were wisely laid and successfully carried on by Your Majesties Royal Predecessor, which since Providence did not allow him time to perfect, who knows, nay who doubts but Your Majesty is come to your Kingdom for such a time as this? to put the finishing Hand to all those Glorious Undertakings, effectually to break the Chains which France has been preparing for the enslaving her neighbouring Kingdoms, to raise England to its ancient Grandure, and make it again hold the Balance of Europe, to be the Terror of your Enemies, the Support of your Allies, and the Defender and Patron of the Protestant Faith and Cause.

These mighty Things seem reserv'd by God for Your Majesties most happy Reign; and as we offer our most fervent Prayers to him, That he would long preserve your Sacred Person, and prosper your Government for these great ends, so we beg leave to assure Your Majesty, That our Prayers shall be ever seconded by all the Endeavours that may become the Characters of Your Majesties most Dutiful and Loyal Subjects.

The following Address was presented to Her Majesty by the Rev. the Dean, and several of the Prebendaries of Winchester, introduced by the Rt. Hon. the Lord Chamberlain.

The humble Address of the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Winchester.

May it please Your most Excellent Majesty,

We the Dean and Prebendaries of the Cathedral Church of Winchester, founded by Your Majesties most Noble and Royal Ancestors, do humbly beg Leave to Congratulate Your Majesties happy Accession to the Crown, by which alone the great Loss we have suffer'd upon the Death of our late Great Sovereign, of Glorious Memory, could be repaired, and the free Enjoyment of our Religion and Liberties be continued and firmly secured unto us.

This is what we have reason to expect from Your Majesties constant and Steady Zeal for our established Religion, and from your most exemplary Life and Piety, which we cannot but look upon as a Pledge and Security of future Blessings to your People.

And as Your Majesties most Gracious Declaration in favour of the Church of England has rais'd in us the highest Sense of Gratitude, so it does engage us in a particular manner to offer up our most fervent and hearty Prayers to Almighty God for the Prosperity of your Reign, and in our Stations to use the
